

Queen's Public Scholars Program Public Scholarship Fellows Application Form

Name
Student Number
Queen's Email Address
Program
Degree Type (MA, PhD, etc.)
What term and year did you start your current graduate program? For example, Winter 2020.

I have reviewed the dates associated with the program and do not anticipate conflicts with my schedule. Information about important dates can be found on the program website.

- Yes
- No

Attached to this application form are:

- My curriculum vitae
- Two letters of reference. One letter must be from a faculty member, preferably your academic supervisor. The second letter can be from another faculty member or a community member familiar with your research and/or community engagement activities.

Your application package must be submitted as a single pdf file.

Statement of Interest

Please provide a brief statement about why you would like to participate in this program. 250 words max.

Research Statement

Please provide a brief statement describing your research. 250 words max.

Statement on Public Scholarship Activities

Public scholarship can involve the following activities:

- Inquiry that engages the public good or public debate in meaningful and/or novel ways.
- Mutually beneficial partnerships between university researchers and community partners.
- The co-design of research projects with a community partner and sustained collaboration thereafter.
- Creative and/or new forms of scholarship, which can include non-conventional dissertations formats.
- Advocacy-based research and knowledge for public good.
- Scholarship that is academically rigorous, but also translated to be accessible to the public (for example, policy briefs, exhibitions, community programs, op-eds, websites, podcasts, and program evaluations, etc.)

Please describe your tentative plan for public scholarship activities with a focus on the work to be completed in the 2023-24 academic year. 500 words max.