

|                                   |  |                            |
|-----------------------------------|--|----------------------------|
|                                   | Department of History   | rev: April 22, 2021 |
|                                   | Grad Course Offerings for MA Students                           |                            |
|                                   | 2021-2022   |                            |
|                                   | DRAFT - subject to change                                       |                            |
| Fall                       |  |                            |
| HIST 802/400-008 c                | STIH: History in the World: Theory, Practice, Controversy              | Woolf                      |
| HIST 812/471 c                    | STIH: Power and Knowledge - Foucault for Historians                    | Maynard                    |
| HIST 813                          | Topics in Modern European History I                                    | Smith                      |
| HIST 816                          | 20th-century Canadian History  | Pasolli                    |
| HIST 820/466 c                    | Radicalism, Revolution, and Religion in Russian History and Literature | Siljak                     |
| HIST 841                          | U.S. History to 1900   | Currarino                  |
| HIST 843                          | Comparative Colonial North American Societies                          | Errington                  |
| HIST 877                          | History, Memory, Commemoration   | Caron                      |
| HIST 886                          | Topics in Early Modern Europe I  | Collins                    |
|                                   |  |                            |
| Winter                     |  |                            |
| HIST 803                          | Topics in Irish History 1798 to the Present                            | Akenson                    |
| HIST 808                          | Capitalism: A Historical View  | Salzmann                   |
| HIST 817                          | Race and Gender in U.S. History  | Haidarali                  |
| HIST 827/441 c                    | Medieval Greece  | Greenfield                 |
| HIST 830                          | STIH: The Production of Knowledge in the Early Modern World            | van Deusen                 |
| HIST 831/400-003 c                | STIH: Jewish and Islamic Intellectual History                          | Husain/Atlas               |
| HIST 839                          | The State in Canada to 1914  | McNairn                    |
| HIST 878/400-001 c                | U.S. Culture and Society, 1945-  | Brisson                    |
| HIST 891                          | Topics in Early Modern Europe II                                       | Jainchill                  |
| HIST 893                          | 19th Century Colonial North America                                    | Errington                  |
| HIST 8xx                          | Introduction to Historical Research                                    | Errington                  |
|                                   |  |                            |
| Fall/Winter                |  |                            |
| HIST 865                          | Selected Topics in History II: Empires and Intimacies                  | Dubinsky                   |
| HIST 876                          | Canada at War  | English                    |
|                                   |  |                            |
| *c: combined course               |  |                            |
| *STIH: Selected Topics in History |  |                            |