

Department of History		01-Jun-22
Grad Course Offerings - DRAFT - subject to change
2022-2023
Course #	Title	Instructor
Fall
HIST 805	British North America, c. 1749-1880	McNairn
HIST 812/449*c	STIH: Topics in Medieval Mediterranean History	Husain
HIST 816	20th-century Canadian History	Brison
HIST 825	Global, World, and Transnational History	Chowdhury
HIST 831	STIH: Empires and Intimacies	Dubinsky
HIST 844	The Production of Knowledge in the Early Modern World	van Deusen
HIST 866/461*c	Race and Ethnicity in Latin America, 1492 to the Present	Parker
HIST 876	Canada at War	English
HIST 891	Topics in Early Modern Europe II	Jainchill
Winter
HIST 802/406*c	STIH: Hunger in Modern European History	Manley
HIST 803	Topics in Irish History 1798 to the Present	Akenson
HIST 811	Introduction to Historical Research	tbd
HIST 812/471*c	STIH: Power and Knowledge: Foucault for Historians	Maynard
HIST 830	History of Political Thought: Topics and Methods	Collins
HIST 832	STIH: Indigenous Peoples and Empires: Encounters in North America, 1534-1815	Berthelette
HIST 845	History in the World: Theory, Practice, Controversy	Woolf
HIST 851	Global African History	Weldemichael
HIST 875	The Human Dimension of War	English
HIST 880	Magic and Miracles in Byzantium	Greenfield
Fall/Winter
HIST 901	Approaches to History	Currarino
STIH: Selected Topics in History
*c - combined course with undergraduate Please note: PhD students cannot take combined courses
HIST 901 is for PhD students only. HIST 811 is for MA students only		