HIST 259 – Islamophobia: Crusades to the Present Department of History Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of History at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching "Islamophobia: Crusades to the Present" (HIST 259), which is being offered on-campus on Tuesday's from 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. and Thursday's from 8:30 a.m. - 10:00 a.m. This is a second-year lecture course with an expected enrolment of 80 students. The course instructor will have latitude to emphasize the contemporary period and global contexts in course materials and to take an interdisciplinary approach. Candidates must have a PhD either in History or relevant discipline as well as teaching experience at the University level. This is a winter term appointment for the period from January 1, 2022 to April 30, 2022.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Matt Colby, Department Manager, Department of History at matt.colby@queensu.ca.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at <http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement>.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada". Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include a cover letter and complete curriculum vitae; any teaching evaluations from courses previously taught; and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a teaching dossier. Applications should also include letters of reference from two referees. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:

Rebecca Manley, Chair
Department of History
Queen's University
history.chair@queensu.ca

Applications will be received until November 10, 2021. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the Department of History can be found at www.queensu.ca/history.
