

TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – 2023/2024
HIST 440 – Britain in the Enlightenment Era
Department of History
Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of History at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching "Britain in the Enlightenment Era" (HIST 440/3.0 units), which is being offered on-campus on Thursdays from 8:30 AM – 11:30 AM. HIST 440 is a one-semester seminar designed for History majors and joint honours students with an expected enrolment of 22 students. Candidates must have a Ph.D. as well as teaching experience at the university level. This is a Winter 2024 term appointment for the period from January 1, 2024 to April 30, 2024.

The university invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

The university will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Dr. Amitava Chowdhury, Department Chair, Department of History at history.chair@queensu.ca.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at QUFA Collective Agreement.

To comply with Federal laws, the university is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada". Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include a cover letter and complete curriculum vitae; any teaching evaluations from courses previously taught; and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a teaching dossier. Applications should also include letters of reference from one referee. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:

Dr. Amitava Chowdhury, Chair
Department of History
Queen's University
history.chair@queensu.ca

Applications will be received until August 14, 2023. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the Department of History can be found at www.queensu.ca/history.
