

TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – 2025/2026
HIST 241 – Issues in History
Department of History
Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of History at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in Issues in History (HIST 241 3.0 units). This is an in-person teaching lecture course offered to 2nd year students enrolled at Queen's University from a variety of academic disciplines, with an expected enrolment of 40 students. Candidates should propose a suitable subtitle for the course and detailed course description that focuses on some aspect of Jewish history in North America, broadly defined. Course title and description will be finalized in consultation with the Department Chair. Candidates should have a Ph.D, and teaching experience at the university level. This is a fall term appointment for the period September 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025, with classes in session from September 2, 2025 to December 2, 2025.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Please indicate in your application if you have a valid legal work status in Canada. Applications from all qualified candidates will be considered in the applicant pool. In order to support your employment at Queen's, we require you to indicate whether or not you will need a work permit.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Jenn Lucas, Program Manager, Department of History: jenn.lucas@queensu.ca

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at Collective Agreements/LoU's/MoA's.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include:

- a cover letter;
- curriculum vitae;
- any teaching evaluations from courses previously taught;
- any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a teaching dossier.
- letters of reference from two referees (submitted directly to history.chair@queensu.ca) by the referees).

Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:

Dr. Amitava Chowdhury, Chair
Department of History
Queen's University
Kingston Ontario Canada K7L 3N6
