

HIST 512: Fall 2026 Internship Advertisement Queen's University

The Queen's Quarterly is a journal of arts, ideas and letters and has been in continuous publication since the 1890s.

We need an internship student capable of assessing and editing manuscript submissions, monitoring and creating content for the Quarterly's social media profile and assisting in a variety of administrative duties. Previous experience in digital publications (blogs, journals, magazines, etc.) would be welcome. This internship is an in person position.
