About Rise Up! Feminist Digital Archive

Rise Up! is a digital archive of feminist activism in Canada from the 1970s to the 1990s. Our mission is to preserve original materials representing the radical grassroots history of the period and to make them accessible online to new generations of activists, students, and researchers. We strive especially to highlight the contributions of those who are too often unacknowledged, including Black, Indigenous, and Women of Colour, disabled women, immigrant women, and LGBTQ2S+ persons.

Location

Rise Up! is Toronto-based. However, the work is virtual so applicants can be located anywhere in Canada.

Description

The Archival Assistant Interns will be responsible for providing archival and social media support to Rise Up! The Interns will gain valuable professional archival and public history experience. They will also receive close mentorship, the opportunity to participate in and contribute to Rise Up Collective and/or Committee meetings, and will learn more about the dynamic history and ongoing work of feminist activism across Canada.

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

Rise Up! aspires to reflect the diversity of past and current grassroots feminist activism through our archival collection. We also aim to address barriers to equity and inclusion within our own organizational structures, membership, decision-making, and practices, and acknowledge there is
