Department of History
Queen’s University

POSTING: Teaching Assistantships in Arts and Science Online
CLOSING DATE: March 11, 2020

On behalf of Arts and Science Online, applications are invited for teaching assistantships for the following online History courses to be offered in the summer of 2020:

COURSES:
Hist 125  Evolution of Modern Europe
Hist 260  Canada from Conquest to the Present
Hist 270  Contemporary China

Job Requirements
These teaching assistantships are for the support of online courses. Some training and preparation is needed before the start of the course. Candidates must be prepared to work outside the regular 9-5 work week, and have access to the internet and a computer that meets minimum requirements. Experience with learning management systems (eg onQ) and videoconferencing software (e.g. Zoom or Adobe Connect) would be an asset.

Contract hours and Hiring
ASO will contact and offer employment to the TAs recommended by the History Department in the order they were submitted as the enrolment increases. The hours in the TA contract will be determined on the basis of the actual course enrolment.

Application Process
The process of assigning qualified graduate students to these jobs is outlined in the Collective Agreement between PSAC 901 and Queen's University. Applications will be reviewed and positions allocated in reference to candidates’ teaching and academic experience as it applies to the course subject field and in reference to the candidates’ priority for a TAship as specified by the Collective Agreement.

If you wish to be considered for a teaching assistantship in any of these courses, please submit electronically a curriculum vitae and a copy of your Queen's transcript – unofficial versions from SOLUS will suffice for this purpose – setting out your academic accomplishments, relevant experience and course preference. If you wish to be considered for more than one of these courses, please ensure that you rank your preferences clearly. These materials and preferences should be emailed to the Department’s TA Coordinator, Professor Rosanne Currarino, at rc16@queensu.ca. Successful applicants will be contacted before March 27, 2020. Only those applicants who will be recommended for a TAship will be contacted. Applications and all supporting documentation are due to Dr. Currarino by e-mail no later than 4:00 pm March 11, 2020.
