TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – Winter 2020
HIST 254 - Women and Gender in 20th Century Canada
Department of History
Queen’s University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of History at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching the “Women and Gender in 20th Century Canada” (HIST 254), which is being offered on-campus in the Winter term of 2020. This is a second-year lecture course with an expected enrolment of 100 students. The successful candidate will deliver two lectures per week (Monday 10:00am - 11:30am and Wednesday 8:30am - 10:00am) and will coordinate and supervise the work of graduate Teaching Assistants. Candidates must have a Ph.D in History, and preference will be given to candidates with training in Canadian History and experience teaching lecture courses. This is a winter term appointment for the period 1 January 2020 to 30 April 2020.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs.

If you require accommodation during this process, please contact:
Matt Colby, matt.colby@queensu.ca / 613-533-2150

The academic staff at Queen’s University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen’s University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include a cover letter and complete curriculum vitae; any teaching evaluations from courses previously taught; and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a teaching dossier. Applications should also include letters of reference from two referees. Please arrange to have applications and supporting materials sent electronically to:

Dr. Jeff Collins, Chair
Department of History
Queen’s University
Kingston Ontario Canada K7L 3N6
history.chair@queensu.ca

Applications will be received until 7 October 2019. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the Department of History can be found at www.queensu.ca/history.

Course Description: HIST 254/3.0 Women and Gender in 20th Century Canada

This course explores the diverse experiences of women in Canada, as well as how the social construction of gender shaped women’s experiences varied by class, race, ethnicity, religion, sexuality, and other kinds of difference.