TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – Winter 2020
HIST 258 -Slavery in North America from the Colonial Era to 1865
Department of History
Queen’s University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of History at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching the "Slavery in North America from the Colonial Era to 1865" (HIST 258), which is being offered on-campus in the Winter term of 2020. This is a second-year lecture course with an expected enrolment of 100 students. The successful candidate will deliver two lectures per week (Wednesday 10:00am - 11:30am and Friday 8:30am - 10:00am) and will coordinate and supervise the work of graduate Teaching Assistants. Candidates must have a Ph.D in History, and preference will be given to candidates with training in North American History and experience teaching lecture courses. This is a winter term appointment for the period 1 January 2020 to 30 April 2020.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs.

If you require accommodation during this process, please contact:
Matt Colby, matt.colby@queensu.ca / 613-533-2150

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include a cover letter and complete curriculum vitae; any teaching evaluations from courses previously taught; and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a teaching dossier. Applications should also include letters of reference from two referees. Please arrange to have applications and supporting materials sent electronically to:

Dr. Jeff Collins, Chair
Department of History
