

CONTENTS

---

v	Preface
vii	Contributors
1	1. Introduction Nadia Verrelli
	I The Changing Federal Environment: Initial Observations
9	2. Embracing Imperfection: How Canada Fares in the Comparative Federalism Literature Thomas O. Hueglin
27	3. The Size of the Federal and Provincial Governments in Canada: Some Quantitative Evidence François Vaillancourt
	II The Implications of the 2011 Federal Election
45	4. The West in Canada: Assessing the West's Role in the Post-2011 Federal System Loleen Berdahl
65	5. The Orange Wave: A (Re)Canadianization of the Quebec Electorate? François Rocher
83	6. Institutional Reform David E. Smith
	III Health Policy, Economic Federalism: Who Is in Charge?
95	7. Never More than a Step from Paradise: Canadian Provinces and the Public Funding of Health Care Services Pierre-Gerlier Forest

- 111      8.    Federalism and Securities Regulation in Canada
             Eric Spink
- 153      9.    Canadian Federalism and International Trade: A Small Step While Waiting for the Giant Leap
             Patrick Fafard and Patrick Leblond
- IV   The Provinces and the North: Growing in Importance?
- 171      10.   Something Old or Something New? Territorial Development and Influence within the Canadian Federation
             George Braden, Christopher Alcantara, and Michael Morden
- 195      11.   On the Relative Neglect of Horizontal Intergovernmental Relations in Canada
             Éric Montpetit and Martial Foucault
- 215      12.   From Old Canada, the New East: Adjusting to the Changing Federal Environment
             Christopher Dunn