
CONTENTS

- v Preface
Elizabeth Goodyear-Grant
- vii Dedication to Robert Young
- ix Contributors
- 1 1. Introduction
John R. Allan, David L.A. Gordon, Kyle Hanniman, André Juneau, and Robert Young
- 17 2. A Brief History of Infrastructure in Canada, 1870–2015
Herb Emery
- 27 3. The Canadian Infrastructure Report Card
Chris McNally, Bill Ferreira, and David L. A. Gordon
- 45 4. Financing Regional Public Transit in Ontario: The Case for Strengthening the Wicksellian Connection
Enid Slack and Richard Bird
- 75 5. A Fiscal Federalism Framework for Financing Infrastructure
Robin Boadway and Harry Kitchen
- 115 6. Distorted Infrastructure
Pamela Blais

- 125 7. Cost Overruns on Infrastructure Projects: Patterns, Causes, and Cures
Matti Siemiatycki
- 141 8. Infrastructure and Intergovernmental Relations: A Policy Framework, Roles, and Relationships, and a Case Study
André Juneau
- 155 9. Québec's Management of Public Infrastructure
Jacques Caron
- 169 10. In Defence of Borrowing
Kyle Hanniman
- 185 11. Recycling Public Assets: An Idea Whose Time Has Come?
Michael Fenn
- 197 12. Fiscal Policy and Federal Infrastructure Financing
C. Scott Clark
- 207 13. KENNETH MACGREGOR LECTURE. When Public-Private Partnerships Make Sense: Two Basic Observations
José A. Gómez-Ibáñez
- 225 14. The Aboriginal Resource Tax: Closing the Infrastructure Gap
Greg Richard
- 247 15. Federalism and Transportation Infrastructure: The US Experience
Martin Horak and Gabriel Eidelman
- 263 16. Is the Teaching of Federalism Dead or Alive in Canada and the United States?
Richard L. Cole and John Kincaid