Federalism and the Welfare State in a Multicultural World

edited by
Elizabeth Goodyear-Grant, Richard Johnston, Will Kymlicka, and John Myles
Contents

Biographies .................................................................................................................................................................... v
Acknowledgments .............................................................................................................................................. xiii

1 Introduction: The Progressive’s Dilemma ................................................................. 1
    Richard Johnston, John Myles, Elizabeth Goodyear-Grant, and Will Kymlicka

2 The Multiple Pathways to Social Policy: Complex Diversity and Redistribution in Canada .............................................................................................................................. 17
    Keith Banting

Federalism and the Welfare State

3 Is Canadian Federalism Market-Preserving? The View from the Bond Markets .............................................................................................................................................. 49
    Kyle Hanniman

4 Quebec’s New Politics of Redistribution Meets Austerity ..................... 73
    Alain Noël

5 Designing a Basic Income Guarantee for Canada ....................................... 101
    Robin Boadway, Katherine Cuff, and Kourtney Koebel

6 Federalism, Race, and the American Welfare State ..................................... 131
    Paul Pierson
Political Institutions and the Welfare State in Canada and the United States

R. Kent Weaver

Federalism, Immigration, and Diversity

Canada’s Changing Citizenship Regime Through the Lens of Immigration and Integration

Jane Jenson and Mireille Paquet

Three Hypotheses on the Relevance of Federalism for the Politics of Immigration and Welfare

Edward Anthony Koning

Is There a Tradeoff Between Ethnic Diversity and Redistribution? The Case of Income Assistance in Canada

David A. Green and W. Craig Riddell

Diversity and Solidarity

Multiculturalism Policy and Support for the Welfare State

Stuart Soroka, Matthew Wright, Irene Bloemraad, and Richard Johnston

Does Everyone Cheer? The Politics of Immigration and Multiculturalism in Canada

Randy Besco and Erin Tolley

The Life and Death of Multiculturalism

David Miller

Index