

OFFICE OF
INDIGENOUS INITIATIVES

Indigenous Knowledge Symposium Call For Proposals

Indigenous Climate Justice

Online Symposium via Zoom | November 5th and 6th 2021

Keynote Speakers: Winona LaDuke & Autumn Peltier

Roundtable Discussants: Dr. Kim Tall Bear, Dr. Karen Lawford, and Tasha Beeds, Ph.D. (c)

The theme of Indigenous Climate Justice brings many important topics together at a conjunctural time. We invite you to this year's symposium to share, learn, teach and mobilize Indigenous traditions, research, knowledge and art towards climate justice.

The symposium will be conducted with respect to Indigenous protocols.

Artists, Students, Scholars, Community Members are all encouraged to apply!

Email us by October 5th at Indigenous.initiatives@queensu.ca

Themes for presentation may include:

- climate justice through an intersectional lens
- cross-global climate justice needs and activism
- Indigenous land sovereignty & climate
- Youth & Elder Perspectives
- Indigenous health and environment
- Water Relations
- Art, Performance and the Environment
- politics and economy and climate justice
- decolonizing climate change policy
- LGBTQIA2S+ identity & environmental justice
- Reproductive Environmental Justice
- Environmental racism

Please include the following in your proposal:

- Title and a brief abstract of your presentation (150-200 words)
- Length of your presentation or workshop
- Preferred delivery format (panel, workshop, other)
- Brief bio of the presenter(s) and their contact information

queensu.ca/indigenous