Canadian International Development Scholarships (BCDI 2030)

Invitation to submit expression of interest

1. Principal Investigator full name
2. Position and Faculty
3. Which type of scholarship project are you interested in applying for? See Program Guidelines for more details on each option.
   a. Option 1: Custom-made training program
   b. Option 2: Full program of study at Queen's (undergraduate, graduate, postdoctoral)
   c. Option 3: Research or mobility stay
   d. Option 4: Complimentary training related to employability
4. Who will your project support? Select all that apply.
   a. Undergraduate students
   b. Graduate students (including PhD)
   c. Postdoctoral students
5. What are your anticipated budget items? You do not need to submit a complete budget at this stage; rather, please indicate the specific items you hope to fund through this award.
6. Which of the key thematic areas does your projcct most closely align with? Select all that apply.
   a. Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM)
   b. Climate Action
   c. Artificial Intelligence
   d. Health Sciences
   e. Green and Blue Economy
   f. Governance and Administration
7. List the partners you will be working with, and explain the nature of your existing partnership with them. You can find the list of 26 partner countries in the Program Guidelines
8. Does your project have a plan to ensure at least 51% of scholarships are provided to women? If so, please provide details.
9. Please use the space below to provide an abstract for the BCDI 2030 Canadian International Development Scholarships program (max. 300 words). Please make reference to the priorities outlined in the Program Guidelines