

Queen's UNIVERSITY

Default Question Block

Internal Project Concept Note Submissions

QES 2025 is the seventh call for proposals for the QES. We are seeking projects that impact a substantial number of students. Collaboration with other academic units is encouraged, but not required. Explore the details and requirements of this latest QES call on our Global Engagement website.

The deadline to submit your Project Concept Note is Thursday, May 2, 2024 (11:59 pm, EST).

If your proposal is chosen, you will be supported by the Office of the Vice-Provost, Global Engagement, in developing your full application.

Block 1

Personal information of lead applicant

Full name

Department

Email

Optional: please list the names and department affiliations of any other Queen's University researchers involved in this project proposal

Researcher 1

Researcher 2

Researcher 3

Researcher 4

Researcher 5

Block 2

Proposed project title

Proposed Project Summary (750 words max)

Describe how your approach, partnerships and activities will contribute to meeting the objectives of the QES program.

Indicate how your program is connected to the theme of adaptation, response and resilience to a changing climate.

Describe your proposed leadership development and community engagement activities for participants.

Proposed numbers

Indicate approximately how many students your QES project will aim to engage (see: QES Budget Form)

Outbound Canadian Students (Senior Undergraduate and Graduate)	<input type="text"/>
Optional: Inbound International Students (Graduate)	<input type="text"/>

List the partner organizations you intend to work with on this project, both in Canada and those located in the list of eligible countries.

Note: partners do not need to be confirmed at this point.

If you have not yet identified any partner organizations you intend to work with, please write 'None.'

Please indicate the country location of each partner organization. Partner institutions/organizations in participating countries may include: universities, research institutes, non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, UN agencies, policy institutes and national and local governments.

This space is for additional information that you would like our team to know.

This section is completely optional (max 250 words). If you have no additional information, please write 'N/A'.

Powered by Qualtrics