“ When I first landed in Australia, I had no idea what to expect. My knowledge of Australia was limited to whatever my backpacking friends had told me of white-sand beaches, deadly spiders, and “g’day mate”s. ”

Ida Bæk, on exchange to ANU 2016

YOUR COURSES

What can I study at ANU?

A full course load at ANU is 24 ANU units per semester (usually 4 courses at 6 units each). Students can take 18 units (3 courses at 6 units each) with the permission of their home institution.

You can view all of our available courses through the ANU Programs and courses webpage;

programsandcourses.anu.edu.au/Search. From here you will need to select 'Courses' from the main subject heading and then enter the appropriate search parameters; commencement year, career and session. You can then narrow the search by entering your area of interest or field of study in the search bar.

The most important areas to reference on this webpage are the "Learning Outcomes" and how that will apply to your full degree program at your home institution, the "Requisite and Incompatibility" section and if you have the required knowledge and prerequisite evidence to meet these requirements and the "Offerings and Dates" section to ensure it will be available in the semester you are attending ANU.

ANU Grading scale

HD	80-100	High Distinction
D	70-79	Distinction
CR	60-69	Credit
P	50-59	Pass
N	0-49	Fail

Credit equivalency (guide only)

6 ANU units (on average, but can vary) =

7.5 ECTS

3.75 credits (Canada)

3.75 credits (USA)

3.75 credits (Korea)

3.5 credits (Japan)

15 credits (UK)

“ As an exchange student, choosing ANU has been the best decision of my university career so far. Through the ANIP program, I have been given the unique chance to intern in the Australian Parliament as part of my degree. What I have learnt so far has been invaluable and will no doubt shape the rest of my life. ”

Sophie Delamothe

ANIP intern from Trinity College Dublin, Ireland

Key terms

Permission codes: For most ANU courses, other than 1000 level courses, you will need permission from an ANU Course Convenor before you are able to enrol. Once you nominate your courses, we will seek a permission code from the academic colleges which will be provided on a case-by-case basis based on whether they deem you have met the pre-requisite requirements.

Undergraduate courses: UG students should be selecting 1000 – 3000 level courses only. Some courses may be restricted to students undertaking particular ANU degrees or study options and are not available to other students. 4000 Level – these courses are, typically, restricted to ANU Honours students only.

Postgraduate Courses: 6000 – 8000 Level – these courses are PG level and not available to students at a UG level.

WHY EXCHANGE OR STUDY ABROAD AT ANU?

We are home to a community of bright and engaged students who come from across Australia and around the world. Coming to ANU, you will become part of a small and friendly community located in the heart of the nation, where decisions that chart the future of society are made.

Academic breadth

The seven academic colleges together teach approximately 200 majors and over 5,000 courses. Some more detail is given in the following pages. ANU has 17 language majors including Japanese, Korean, Indonesian, German and French. We encourage students to take up beginners' courses in a new language or further their knowledge by taking intermediary or advanced language lessons if they meet the pre-requisites.

A cross-disciplinary approach to education

We encourage students to take up different subjects in different colleges/faculties; there are generally no restrictions to be doing a select number of courses at one college and the rest at another. As long as the student meets pre-requisites, the student could be doing all four courses (a full semester workload) at different academic colleges.

Strong STEM focus

ANU plays an important national role in the fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

Our world renowned researchers are working at the forefront of global challenges and specialise in everything from addressing climate change and predicting tsunamis, to developing the world's highest efficiency solar cell and leading major advances in stem cell science for a new era of regenerative medicine. ANU ranks 1 in Australia and 28 in the world for physical sciences.

International Relations and Politics

The University's proximity to government, parliament and the diplomatic corps delivers a unique experience for students with an interest in international relations. The ANU Department of International Relations is a leading centre for the study of global politics. With one of the world's largest concentrations of Asia Pacific expertise, students have access to a network of scholars and graduates who provide policy advice at the highest levels in Australia, the Asia Pacific and beyond.

Australian National Internships Program

Established by ANU in 1993, the Australian National Internships Program (ANIP) has already provided over 1,500 students with the opportunity to undertake a significant research project within a workplace. ANIP is the only program in Australia that gives you the opportunity to work at the heart of Australian policy and politics.

YOUR SUPPORT SERVICES

ANU Academic Skills and Learning Centre

The Academic Skills and Learning Centre can provide you with free and confidential help with your studies through tutorials, workshops, courses, podcasts and handouts. They can help you to develop the academic, critical thinking and communication skills you need to succeed at university.

ANU Careers Centre

The Careers Centre can help you to plan your career by providing you with career target strategies, tools and career development information. You can drop in for a one-on-one or use CareerHub to look for jobs, work experience and internship opportunities, online career planning, application resources, seminars, workshops, employer presentations and career events.

SET4ANU

SET4ANU is a fun, free program that matches new students to a more experienced student volunteer who can help you with all the practical things that need to be done at the beginning of semester. They will introduce you to other students in similar degree programs, show you around campus and help you access facilities and services. They'll help you sign up for tutorials, student email, join the gym, clubs and societies. The SET4ANU volunteers can also show you where you can get help with essays and exam preparation, and how to access other course specific content.

“ ANU provides a wide array of student support services. The University Counselling Centre offers 6 sessions a semester for FREE to enrolled students with an inclusive approach to well-being that understands how mental and physical health can intertwine. Throughout campus and surrounding areas, there are trails, maps, and stations that include workout instructions open to all people. ”

Desiree Davidson, on exchange to ANU 2018

ANU Access and Inclusion

Access and Inclusion provide support to students from a range of backgrounds and circumstances to ensure they receive equal access to opportunities. Access and Inclusion support alternative and mature age entry students, student carers and students with disability, student athletes, and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Intersex students.

ANU Health Service

ANU Health Service is a fully accredited primary health care facility that provides comprehensive health services to current ANU students and staff. Australian students at ANU are bulk-billed through Medicare, and international students through their Overseas Student Health Cover.

ANU Counselling Centre

The Counselling Centre provides free, confidential and professional services to students dealing with a range of difficulties. The Counselling Centre also runs an extensive group and seminar program throughout semester to support student health and wellbeing.

For more information about help and support at ANU go to www.anu.edu.au/students/support

YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Living on campus

Be part of the community of students who live on or near campus. Living in a student residence gives you an opportunity to form close bonds through shared experiences with your peers and neighbours. You will become part of an important support network as you help each other through assessments, exam periods, and the ups and downs of university life. A number of services are offered within each hall, college or lodge including pastoral and academic support as well as computer labs and extracurricular activities.

ANU Accommodation Guarantee

We guarantee accommodation to interstate domestic students and international students who:

- > receive and accept their offer to study at ANU within the advertised dates
- > Apply for accommodation before the advertised closing date
- > are in their first year of study at ANU, starting in their first semester, whether that is Semester 1 or 2
- > are enrolled full-time

Accommodation

ANU has eleven different residences for undergraduate students. You can nominate a fully catered, self-catered or apartment-style residence. All have laundry facilities, outdoor spaces and study rooms, and are within easy walking distance to shops, cafes, restaurants, sporting facilities, nightlife and public transport. Guaranteed ANU Accommodation – applications close at midnight, 8 June 2018 for Semester 2, 19 December 2018 for Semester 1 2019. For more information on our accommodation guarantee, please visit: anu.edu.au/study/accommodation/advice-procedures/accommodation-guarantee.

Estimated cost of living

Please note:

Some halls, colleges and lodges charge extra for phone, internet connections and other services.

The fees listed in the table are for 2018 and are subject to change. Go to anu.edu.au/study/accommodation for updates on current fees and any other costs involved. All figures in this table are in Australian dollars.

“ I live in Kinloch lodge, which is one of the Unilodge housings on campus. I've really enjoyed living close to all my classes and the libraries because it's so easy to move between home and University.

Unilodge has put together all kinds of events and activities: movie nights at the Kinloch theater, sport teams that are open for everyone, mixers with other halls and the black-tie Unilodge commencement. Probably the best part is meeting new people and living in a community. ”

Roosa Savo, on exchange to ANU 2018

YOUR COMMUNITY

ANU Exchange Network

The ANU Exchange Network works closely with the Global Programs team to host events during your time at ANU. The club is made up of students here on exchange or study abroad as well as students who have either been on exchange or who are about to go on exchange. It is a great social network to get involved in if you want to meet other exchange students as well as likeminded domestic students looking to expand their degree with an international experience.

They will also host trips throughout the semester, such as a Sydney trip, to help you explore Australia and all we have to offer.

ANUSA

The ANU Students' Association or 'ANUSA' is the peak representative body for all undergraduate students at ANU. If you are an undergraduate student then you are automatically a member of ANUSA.

ANUSA is made up of forty elected student representatives and a team of professional staff members. This includes two lawyers and two Student Assistance Officers who provide free and confidential services.

ANUSA also run the Brian Kenyon Student Space (BKSS) which is a lounge and accessible kitchen near the ANU Pop-Up Village. They offer free breakfast, tea and coffee and much more.

For more information, visit anusa.com.au

PARSA

The Postgraduate and Research Students' Association (PARSA) is the democratically elected representative body for postgraduate students at ANU. PARSA exists to ensure the interests of postgraduates at ANU, namely through representing postgraduate students rights and welfare.

PARSA provides legal assistance as well as support and an emergency assistance grant for students in need.

For more information, visit parsa.anu.edu.au

Clubs and Societies

If you have an interest or hobby outside of the classroom, chances are that you will find a likeminded group of students in an ANU Club or Society. With over 200 to choose from, joining one (or many) of these clubs/societies is a great way to get out, meet new people and pursue your interests whilst on your exchange or study abroad program.

YOUR WEEKEND GETAWAYS

Canberra is situated in an ideal location allowing its residents access to so many amazing weekend getaways. Just hours away from the beach in summer and the snow in winter, there are endless opportunities available for anyone who likes to explore.

Bateman's Bay

A 2 hour drive will take you to the South Coast central hub of Bateman's Bay. From here you can get to a variety of beaches for whale watching, surfing, swimming or simply just to enjoy the sand between your toes. Jarvis Bay, home of the whitest sand beaches in the world, is only 2.5 hours drive from Canberra.

Each semester the ANU Global Programs team runs a Surf Camp with Surf Camp Australia where students are taken for a weekend away to learn how to surf with the experts.

Snow and Jindabyne

A 2 hour drive will get you to Jindabyne; the gateway to Thredbo & Perisher ski fields and Mount Kosciusko. During the winter months of June – September this is the perfect ski or snowboard get away and during the warmer months you will be able to climb Mount Kosciusko; the highest peak in Australia.

Blue Mountains

The Blue Mountains is home to the Three Sister Mountains, Jenolan Caves and the steepest incline railway in the world! This picturesque location is the perfect place to escape for the weekend and is only a 4 hour drive away.

Sydney

The Opera House, the Harbour Bridge, Darling Harbour... all just a 3 hour drive or bus ride away. You can join the hustle and bustle of Sydney for a fun weekend away anytime with this short trip.

Melbourne

All of the cultural highlights of Melbourne can be found after a short 1 hour flight or an overnight bus trip. Known for its great food and happening nightlife, Melbourne is the perfect place to get away and do some eating and shopping.

YOUR AUSSIE BUCKET LIST

Great Barrier Reef and Far North Queensland

One of the seven natural wonders of the world, a UNESCO world heritage site and the largest living thing on Earth. The Great Barrier Reef is an absolute must see destination for anyone coming to Australia.

The Great Ocean Road

A 243km stretch of road, the Great Ocean Road is the largest war memorial in the world; dedicated to Australian soldiers killed during World War 1. A hub for wildlife spotting and home to the Twelve Apostles and Loch Ard Gorge, the Great Ocean Road is a great place to spend a day or a weekend.

Uluru

Housed in the Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park, Uluru is a sacred sandstone monolith within the Australian indigenous culture. Located in Australia's Northern Territory near Alice Springs, this unique and culturally significant site is a great place to visit if you have some time before or after your exchange or during your mid-semester break.

New Zealand

Only a short, 3 hour flight away from Canberra, New Zealand is an adventurer's paradise. A hub for adventure sports such as bungy jumping, sky diving and zorbing NZ is a great place to explore whilst living in Australia. It's natural scenery and unique wildlife are also not to be missed.

YOUR TICKET TO MAKE IT HAPPEN

Exchange

If your home institution (the institution you are completing your degree at) has an exchange agreement with ANU then you may be able to secure an exchange place for a semester or year abroad. Through this agreement you are not required to pay any course fees to ANU!

Study Abroad

If your home institution does not have an exchange agreement with ANU, you can still study here for a single semester or full year under our Study Abroad Program. You will pay tuition fees upfront to ANU for your study period but will have access to the same support, services and courses as exchange students. You may also be eligible for a reduced fee rate if your home institution has a Study Abroad agreement with ANU.

Study abroad partner rate in 2018 - $12,735.00AUD

Study abroad full fee in 2018 - $20,160.00AUD

Please email inbound.global@anu.edu.au for more information about a partnership with ANU.

Eligibility

To be eligible to come to ANU as an exchange or study abroad student you need to meet both the academic and English language requirements.

English

The ANU English Language Requirements for Admissions policy outlines all requirements for a variety of English proficiency tests including IELTS, TOEFL, CAE and CEFR. It also outlines alternate ways to meet these requirements with citizenship and prior studies.

Academic

You must have completed (or will have completed upon commencement) at least one year (full time or equivalent) at your home institution with an equivalent of a GPA 4/7 or as per your institutions specific agreement. All equivalencies will undergo a final assessment by the ANU Global Programs team.

“ Going to the Australian National University for a semester was one of the best decisions I have ever made. ”

Marina Affo, on exchange to ANU 2016

YOUR STARTING POINT

Exchange

If you wish to study at ANU as an exchange student, follow these simple steps:

Step 1 Liaise with your home institution regarding their exchange application/nomination process. You must be nominated to ANU by your home institution in the first instance.

Step 2 Submit an exchange application to ANU through the online application portal. Once you have been nominated, you will receive instructions from ANU on how to apply including any appropriate deadlines.

Step 3 Once you receive your ANU Exchange offer you will need to accept it to receive your electronic Confirmation of Enrolment to study at ANU. This will involve either making payment for your OSHC cover to ANU or arranging this independently. Your electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) is what you will require for your student visa application.

Step 4 Obtain your visa (if required) and apply for ANU Accommodation. ANU offers guaranteed campus accommodation to undergraduate students coming to ANU for their first time. Postgraduate students will not be covered by this guarantee however, ANU will house as many PG students in campus accommodation as possible.

Step 5 Get excited! The ANU Global Programs team really encourage you to get as excited and engaged as possible. You will be invited to attend a number of sessions and groups in the lead up to your arrival.

Further information, and the Exchange application portal, can be found at:
anu.edu.au/study/apply/applying-for-exchange-at-anu

Application deadlines

One academic year at ANU is broken into two semesters.

Semester 1 (mid February – end June) - apply by 1 November of previous year.

Semester 2 (mid July - end November) - apply by 1 April.

Study Abroad

If you wish to study at ANU as a study abroad student, follow these simple steps:

Step 1 Liaise with your home institution regarding the courses you wish to take at ANU. Your home institution will need to approve you to go on a study abroad program and they will need to know the courses you wish to take are relevant and transferrable to your degree.

Step 2 Submit a study abroad application to ANU through the online application portal. Once you have been approved, you will receive instructions from ANU on how to apply including any appropriate deadlines. If your home institution has a study abroad agreement with ANU, they will also need to nominate you or contact the Global Programs team via email to support your application.

Step 3 Once you receive your ANU Study Abroad offer you will need to accept it to receive your electronic Confirmation of Enrolment to study at ANU. This will involve paying your fees upfront. Your electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) is what you will require for your student visa application.

Step 4 Obtain your visa (if required) and apply for ANU Accommodation. ANU offers guaranteed campus accommodation to undergraduate students coming to ANU for their first time. Postgraduate students will not be covered by this guarantee however, ANU will house as many PG students in campus accommodation as possible.

Step 5 Get excited! The ANU Global Programs team really encourage you to get as excited and engaged as possible. You will be invited to attend a number of sessions and groups in the lead up to your arrival.

Further information, and the Study Abroad application portal, can be found at:

YOUR ARRIVAL

The ANU Global Programs team runs a comprehensive orientation program.

In the lead up to your arrival at ANU, you will receive countdown information with tips and advice for each stage of your preparation. This will include invites to events, tips on customs and so much more.

Once you arrive at ANU, you will undergo a comprehensive orientation program both exchange/study abroad specific and university wide.

Orientation Week

In a massive collaboration across academic colleges, student groups and central support areas ANU hosts an O-Week at the beginning of every semester. A comprehensive schedule will be available and provided closer to the commencement of semester and gives you access to all the information and support you will need during your time at ANU. From social events to academic advisory sessions to enrolment support the ANU community will have you covered.

Meet and Greet Session

The ANU Global Programs office hosts a Meet and Greet session the Sunday prior to Orientation Week. This session is designed to welcome you to Australia, Canberra and ANU whilst allowing you to create a support network and make friends early on in your journey at ANU. There may even be an animal encounter as part of it!

ANU Airport and Jolimont Centre Welcome

In collaboration with Study Canberra, ANU offers a free 'Airport Welcome' service at the Canberra airport to all new undergraduate, postgraduate and exchange students (including family members travelling with you) to help you arrive in time for Orientation Week.

The service will pick you up from the airport and drop you off at ANU, your ANU hall of residence or at UC Village.

You must register for this service and it will only run in the week prior to O-Week. You can find more information on its running dates, as well as registration, on the ANU Student Engagement and Career Development webpage -

“ It already seems like a lifetime ago I was in my quaint little university town, about an hour away from Toronto, Canada, suffering in the negative 30’s (and yes, that’s Celsius). Gone are the days of me wearing 8 layers in order to feel my limbs and being able to feel my nose hairs freeze while walking to class. Now I’m surrounded by sunshine, LOTS of bicycles, and friendly faces everywhere I go. Within my first day of being here, I was able to meet tons of other exchange students from all over the globe, thanks to the ANU Exchange Meet and Greet program. It was a good way to start off my O-week, followed by fun residence activities to get everyone to mingle, and tons of clubs and societies hosting welcome lunches and events. It felt a lot like my first year at my home school, when I first moved into my residence. ”

Jessica Howatt, on exchange to ANU 2018

YOUR GLOBAL PROGRAMS TEAM

Tilly Hickenbotham

Head of Global Programs

Where did you grow up? A tiny town in NSW on a farm with my poddy calf - Curly.

How did you end up in Canberra?

I was destined to live in this beautiful city!

What's your favourite place you've been?

It is a draw between Bruny Island in Tasmania and Phú Quốc, Vietnam!
Both beautiful, tranquil and mystical...

ANU Global Programs is a team dedicated to supporting students with learning abroad experiences. This is for both students coming to study at ANU and ANU students wishing to study abroad. Our team is dedicated to our students having an experience that will enable them to grow academically, professionally and personally. Our team run the University's centralised study mobility functions and provides specialised mobility knowledge and advice across the institution.

Kristina Tan

Coordinator (Outbound)

Where did you grow up? I was born in Wimbledon, grew up in Malaysia, then moved back to the UK as a teenager.

How did you end up in Canberra?

I moved to Canberra in 2011 for the great outdoor life.

What's your favourite place you've been?

Bruges - fantastic chocolates!
Stockholm, Bhutan, Zanzibar...so many places!

Brooke Armour

Coordinator (Inbound)

Where did you grow up?

I was born in Edinburgh, Scotland.

How did you end up in Canberra?

I moved to Australia when I was 4 years old to follow my Dad home from his very extended 'gap year'!

What's your favourite place you've been?

My favorite place I have been so far is a hard one but I'll say Berlin Germany. It was such a welcoming, fascinating and historically unique city with beautiful things to see and delicious food to eat.

Kira Scaife

Grants and Administration Officer

Where did you grow up?

A small country town in southern Tasmania.

How did you end up in Canberra?

I moved here for university and discovered that Canberra is a lovely place to live.

What's your favourite place you've been?

Florence, Italy. It's a great city to walk around in, and I had a lot of fun spotting ugly renaissance babies at the art galleries.
