If you are wondering where to start your exchange research, we suggest you begin with this document.

This list gives you universities where Queen's students took most of their courses by discipline. This data was assembled by looking at the transfer credit reports for each of the universities and determining which discipline yielded most transferred courses. The list only indicates the top 10 universities per discipline and is certainly not exhaustive. Students may be able to take courses not listed here, and you are encouraged to review the university's website to determine suitability.
