CCC Global Career Seminar in Canada – Program Overview for Queen’s Students

Program Period

Monday, February 17, 2020 - Saturday, February 22, 2020, conducted at the St. George Campus of the University of Toronto. Mount Allison and Queen’s University students enter accommodation on February 16; University of Toronto students enter accommodation on 20 February. All students from Canada will check out from accommodation on February 22.

Online Pre-Seminar Sessions

10 Pre-Seminar Sessions will be conducted starting from late November (the number is subject to change). *Applicants must watch all the recorded online Pre-Seminar Sessions stated in the syllabus.

Credit

3.0 units will be awarded by KGU. Credit awarded by KGU will be recognized by Queen’s University. The Global Career Seminar has been pre-approved for transfer as either COMM 2UNS/3.0 or LLCU 2UNS/3.0.

Tuition fees

Participating students pay applicable tuition fee for 3.0 units to Queen’s University. No tuition is payable to KGU but there is a Program Fee of 46,000 yen charged by KGU. Queen’s students will also need to apply for an International Letter of Permission which is the formal document requesting transfer credit from KGU. Apply for the ILOP here https://www.queensu.ca/ipo/outgoing-students/independent-study-abroad/eligibility-and-application and go to Step 3 “Apply for an International Letter of Permission”. Find payment methods here: http://www.queensu.ca/artsci/students-at-queens/letter-of-permission (Note the “payment” button at the bottom of the page.)

Program Fees (non-refundable) & travel costs/arrangements

The Program Fee is 46,000 yen (c. $565 as of September 20 2019). This covers accommodation from February 16-22 and an administration fee. Items not included in the Program Fee: transportation to and from Toronto; meals during the program and travel insurance. Students are responsible for their own meals and transportation costs (including travel costs to and from Toronto, and commuting costs to and from the University of Toronto) during the program.

KGU Transcripts

KGU usually forwards transcript for the CCC program to the International Programs Office by mid-March each year. As long as the student has submitted the International Letter of Permission document to the IPO prior to the beginning of the program, the IPO will process the transfer credit upon receipt of KGU transcript.

Student Support

Queen’s students participating in the CCC program are welcome to contact the International Programs Office (IPO) B206 Mackintosh-Corry Hall; 1-613-533-2815 or ipo@queensu.ca with questions or for advice and assistance.
