

CCC Global Career Seminar in Canada 2021 – Program Overview for Queen’s Students

Please ensure you read this information alongside the documentation provided by Kwansei Gakuin University, as well as the information on the IPO website.

Program Period

Sunday, February 14, 2020 - Friday, February 19, 2020. All work will be conducted online/remotely and not in person. Synchronous work will take place between 6:00pm – 10:30pm Ontario/7:00pm – 11:30pm New Brunswick (8:00am – 12:30pm JST).

Online Pre-Seminar Sessions

10 Pre-Seminar Sessions will be uploaded starting November 9. *Applicants must watch all the recorded online Pre-Seminar Sessions and submit the assignments stated in the syllabus.

Credit

3.0 units will be awarded by KGU. Credit awarded by KGU will be recognized by Queen’s University. The Global Career Seminar has been pre-approved for transfer as either COMM 2UNS/3.0 or LLCU 2UNS/3.0.

Tuition fees

Participating students pay applicable tuition fee for 3.0 units to Queen’s University. Queen’s students will also need to apply for an International Letter of Permission which is the formal document requesting transfer credit from KGU. Apply for the ILOP here <https://www.queensu.ca/ipo/outgoing-students/independent-study-abroad/eligibility-and-application> and go to Step 3 “Apply for an International Letter of Permission”. Find payment methods here: <http://www.queensu.ca/artsci/students-at-queens/letter-of-permission> (Note the “payment” button at the bottom of the page.)

Program Fees

For the 2021 iteration of this program there is no program fee as it is being held online/remotely.

KGU Transcripts

KGU usually forwards transcript for the CCC program to the International Programs Office by mid-March each year. As long as the student has submitted the International Letter of Permission document to the IPO prior to the beginning of the program, the IPO will process the transfer credit upon receipt of KGU transcript.

Student Support

Queen’s students participating in the CCC program are welcome to contact the International Programs Office (IPO) at ipo@queensu.ca with questions or for advice and assistance.
