PRE-DEPARTURE

Website for international students	This website with information on life in the Netherlands and practical matters such as Visa, Housing and Financial Matters will help students prepare their stay.
Housing	Like many universities in the Netherlands, Leiden University does not have a central campus or student dormitories. Instead, our faculties are spread throughout the cities of Leiden and The Hague and students live in accommodation rented via housing organisations and landlords. Prospective students should start to explore ways of finding accommodation well before arriving in the Netherlands to begin their studies. In general, students are expected to arrange their own housing. The Leiden University Housing Office does reserve a limited number of rooms for international students each year, but due to high demand and limited availability, the Housing Office cannot guarantee accommodation to all applicants. Prospective students are thus advised to apply for housing in a very early stage, and to pay the housing application fee (€350) as early as possible after application, and well before the housing application deadline of June 1st for the Fall semester and November 15th for the Spring semester. An application for housing can be submitted via the application portal as soon as their application for admission has been submitted. There is no need to await a decision on their application for admission to Leiden University. For detailed information on housing fees and deposits please visit the website.
Visa and residence permits	Holders of EU passports do not require a residence permit to study at Leiden University. Students with a non-EU nationality must have a residence permit and in many cases an entry visa as well. Once a student has been admitted to Leiden University, the International Relations Office will work with the student to apply on their behalf. Students should note that there is a fee of €192 for visas/permits (this fee is subject to change) and strict deadlines for submission of documents.
Insurance	All students are obliged to have health insurance to cover any medical costs incurred during their stay. We strongly recommend that students ensure they have medical insurance before their arrival. Students are also highly recommended to take out liability insurance to cover any accidental damage caused to other persons or property.
Estimated living expenses	On average, students will need at least €928 – €1378 per month. Please note that public transport is not free for exchange students, but discount cards are available.

Residence Life Programme (RLP)	Students living in university provided international accommodation in Leiden area and The Hague can rely on Resident Assistants living in their buildings. The Resident Assistants try to create a home away from home for the new tenants by organizing community building events, lending a sympathetic ear, and helping them with issues or questions they may be experiencing. They also function as a contact point, referring them to the appropriate Student Support Services, and as a liaison between DUWO, and the interests of the tenants.

Credit and grading	Leiden University uses the ECTS credit transfer system. Most courses carry a load of 5 or 10 ECTS credits. As is common in the Netherlands, the top grades of 9 and 10 are rarely given. A grading table will be provided on all transcript of records. Please check the website for more information on the grading table.
Standard course load	15-30 ECTS per semester for non-degree students. 30 ECTS is the standard full-time semester load for degree students. 1 ECTS credit equals 28 hrs of study, including contact hours and self-study.

Registration for approved courses in our online registration system occurs prior to the start of the semester. This process differs per faculty; students will receive further instructions close to the start of the semester. Questions regarding course registration after arrival should be directed to the academic coordinator at the faculty responsible for the course a student wishes to take.
Examinations	Many exams for courses that are available to international exchange students are held so that students may return home by the end of December. There is, however, no guarantee that this will always be possible. Alternative arrangements for assessments may be possible, only at the discretion of the lecturer/department. Please note: It is not possible to make alternative arrangements for psychology exams. If students need to be back at their home university in early January, they cannot take psychology courses in period 2.

They will have access to the portal up to 60 days after the last day of their last semester at Leiden University. In case a transcript is required after that date, these can be requested via email to exchange@sea.leidenuniv.nl. Transcripts are downloadable by students at any time, but should be complete by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - for Fall students: mid-February to mid-March - for Spring and Full-Year students: mid-June to end of August Please note that this is an indication only.
