Projecting Stability: A NATO’s deterrence strategy for South?

Dr. Chloe BERGER
NATO DEFENSE COLLEGE
Projecting Stability:
A threat-based strategy for South

- A threat-based strategy

“Projecting Stability means supporting NATO partners in their efforts to make their countries more stable, secure and peaceful. It also means that contemporary threats often transcend national boundaries and need to be addressed by working with partner countries and other organizations”

- A unique set of challenges:
  - Diversity of threats/challenges
  - Variety of areas concerned
2nd Circle:

Broad MENA Region

28 Member States and Partners of NATO

- Member States
- Euro-Atlantic Partnership Council (EAPC*)
- NATO’s Mediterranean Dialogue
- Istanbul Cooperation Initiative (ICI)
- Partners across the globe

Source: www.nato.int  *The EAPC consists of all NATO member countries
3rd circle: « South of the South »