COURSE SELECTION GUIDELINES

The course selection will consist of a minimum of nine one term graduate courses. See sections 1.2.1, 1.2.2 and 1.2.3 in the departmental booklet, Graduate Programmes and Guidelines, for complete details on the doctoral program course requirements. Students and supervisors should follow these guidelines when selecting courses:

- no more than one third of your required courses should be double numbered courses (i.e., courses offered jointly with undergraduate courses);
- courses should be selected with the objective of achieving exposure to multiple branches of mathematics and/or statistics;
- courses should be selected with the objective of achieving depth of knowledge in your chosen field.

COURSE SELECTIONS New Revised

Revisions to this list must be made by resubmitting a copy of this form.

Type is indicated as follows: DC = double numbered course, CC = Core course, KC = depth of knowledge course
