

Qatamon in Colour

The ethics and politics of a multi-media project in Jerusalem

“Qatamon in Colour is a multi platform project that engages former and current residents of a Jerusalem neighborhood that was Palestinian until 1948 and Israeli since. In this presentation I will discuss the challenges of engaging Palestinians with a painful memory, engaging Israelis with a buried history, and doing it without normalizing the relations between the two peoples.”

Speaker:

Dorit Naaman

March 26,

Tue, 2:30-4 pm

Dunning Hall 27

www.queensu.ca/msgp

Muslim Societies, Global Perspectives (Queen's University)