

Emerging Challenges for Liberal Democracy

Conference Program

Day 1 (April 16)

9:30am–6:00pm | Queen's University (All talks in Stirling Hall 414)

9:30 am – Welcome remarks (Stirling 401)

10:00: Tyra Maud Declerck (UQÀM)

“When Rights Are Not Enough: Vulnerability and Equal Standing in Liberal Democracies”

- Commentary: Léonard Bédard (Queen's)

11:15 am – Coffee break (Stirling 401)

11:30: Elliot Goodell Ugalde (Queen's)

“Reframing Democratic Governance: Anishinaabeg Kinship and the Limits of Liberal Institutional Design”

- Commentary: Michael Luoma (UNBC)

12:45 pm – Lunch (Stirling 401)

2:00: Hamid Andishan (CBU)

“The Right to Rebellion Against Imam”

- Commentary: Arthur Hill (Queen's)

3:15 pm – Coffee break (Stirling 401)

4:00: Keynote – Arash Abizadeh (McGill)

“Popular Sovereignty vs Democracy: Or, How Rousseau Killed Democracy”

6:00 – Reception at University Club (168 Stuart St.)

7:45 – Dinner reservation (Aqua Terra, 1 Johnson St.)

Day 2 (April 17)

9:30am–4:00pm | Queen's University (All talks in Stirling Hall 414)

9:30 am – Refreshments (Stirling 401)

10:00: John Edwards-Boone (Queen's)

“Occupation and Opportunity: Ottawa's Freedom Convoy, Annexation and Sowing Chaos Abroad”

- Commentary: Dean Joseph (Queen's)

11:15 am – Coffee break (Stirling 401)

11:30: Yutang Jin (HKU)

“Collective Self-Determination: A Transgenerational Conception”

- Commentary: Jordan Desmond (Queen's)

12:45 pm – Lunch (Stirling 401)

2:00: Keynote – Will Kymlicka (Queen's)

“Membership-Making in a Mobile World”

4:00 – Farewell reception & informal dinner/drinks

Generously sponsored by the Queen's University Department of Philosophy