

Project: The Epistemic Corruption Project

We are currently recruiting for the following:

Research Assistant (5 months)

The Epistemic Corruption project (Sergio Sismondo and Daryn Lehoux) is looking for a graduate student research assistant for the period of February to June, 2023. The position will be calculated at the Queen's standard RA rate for 120 hours, with most of the work being done between mid-April and mid-June.

The project would like to hire a student with excellent organizational and problem-solving skills: The RA will be need to gain an understanding of the project, provide assistance with the creation of a database of key resources, maintain close contact with a group of collaborators, help with and possibly arrange some travel plans for those collaborators, handle detailed logistics for a workshop held in early June, and other duties as required.

Please send applications (CV and cover letter explaining your fit for the position), by Wednesday, January 18, 2023 to:

Sergio Sismondo
Department of Philosophy, Queen's University
sismondo@queensu.ca