

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
Strategic Mandate Agreement Annual Report 2017-18
Part 1. Overview

Introduction

The 2017-20 Strategic Mandate Agreements (SMAs) between individual universities and the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities outline the role universities perform in Ontario's postsecondary education system and how they will build on institutional strengths to fulfil their mandate and help support system-wide objectives and government priorities.

Each priority area in 2017-20 SMAs includes system-wide and institution-specific metrics and targets.

The SMA Annual Report is used by the ministry to track progress on metric performance on an annual basis. The SMA Annual Report is also an opportunity for institutions to provide contextual information and a narrative associated with performance in the shared priority areas. Part 1. Overview introduces the institutional context for metrics performance, overall and by priority area. Part 2. Data Workbook includes historical data and most recently available values for both system-wide and institution-specific metrics.

The ministry requests that you submit your completed 2017-18 SMA Annual Report by January 16, 2019. Please submit your institution's documents to the following ministry email: SMAreporting@ontario.ca.

For more information on the Strategic Mandate Agreements, please visit the Ontario Government webpage here.

Queen's University prides itself on being a 'balanced academy,' blending tradition and innovation to provide both a transformative student experience and a high quality, research-intensive environment. These complementary strengths are core aspects of the university's mission and create a distinctive environment where inquiry, discovery, and innovation thrive. Queen's attracts outstanding undergraduate and graduate students and researchers. Students are supported by a strong tradition of community that encourages a commitment to academic success and personal development through diverse curricular, co- and extra-curricular opportunities. Queen's is a member of the U15 Group of Canadian Research Universities. Our faculty and research personnel continue to produce high-quality, internationally recognized research that has academic, government and economic impact. Queen's is also a catalyst for the region, with strong commitments to regional economic development, social innovation and the development of highly qualified personnel, and we do so collaboratively, valuing our partnerships with local governments, industries and regional colleges.

Queen's priorities and goals remain consistent with the aspirations set out in our initial Strategic Mandate Agreement: to maintain and advance the student learning experience and research prominence of the university; to broaden and develop equitable access, programming and pathways to the university; to lead and innovate in teaching and learning; and to remain a key partner in innovation, regional development and the communities of Kingston and Eastern Ontario. We employ numerous strategies both institution-wide and within faculties and professional schools, guided by the clear focus and challenging goals of the university's strategic framework. The following examples illustrate the focus and commitment of the university.

- Development of flexible, responsive and timely student service and supports, with a significant focus on health and wellness that help support Queen's high retention and graduation rates.
- Participating in HEQCO-funded outcomes development and skills assessment that demonstrate Queen's leadership in evidence-based teaching and learning practices.
- Commitment to experiential learning (EL) opportunities via an EL steering committee and expanded EL opportunities through Career Services, in partnership with faculties and schools.
- Faculty renewal, which has resulted in 79 new-faculty hires to date to support our commitment to advancing excellence in teaching and learning and research, and the training of highly qualified personnel.

Priority Areas

Provide trends, and key outcomes for the 2017-18 Strategic Mandate Agreement metrics included within each of the five priority areas. (max. 200 words per priority area).

1. Student Experience

This priority area captures institutional strengths in improving student experience, outcomes and success, and recognizes institutions for measuring the broader learning environment, such as continuity of learning pathways, retention, student satisfaction, co-curricular activities and records, career preparedness and student services and supports.

Queen's Student Experience metrics are at the 2019-2020 targets, consistent with the university's commitment to a high-quality student experience. All of the metrics within this priority area exhibit a stable trend over the collection period. These results reflect the continued efforts of the University to improve upon, diversify and create new opportunities, supports and pathways to challenge our students and ensure their success. Many initiatives across Queen's focus on the changing environment in post-secondary education, and directly address key areas of critical importance such as student health and wellness. The construction of Mitchell Hall provides a central location for student health and wellness services, the Queen's University International Centre, the Faith and Spiritual Life Centre, athletics and recreation facilities, and an examination centre to support the increasing number of students writing accommodated exams. Mitchell Hall reflects Queen's commitment to providing exemplary student support. Additionally, Queen's continues to prepare students for success after graduation by expanding opportunities for experiential and work integrated learning, internships, university-to-work coaching, and opportunities to participate in innovative research. The results of these initiatives are evidenced by our strong retention rates, high-impact practice rates and opportunities, as well as strong, high-quality academic experience ratings from both undergraduate and graduate students.

2. Innovation in Teaching and Learning Excellence

This priority area focuses on innovative efforts including pedagogical approaches, program delivery and student services that contribute to a highly skilled workforce and ensure positive student outcomes. It captures institutional strengths in delivering high-quality learning experiences such as experiential, entrepreneurial, personalized and digital learning, and student competencies that improve employability.

Queen's metrics are within the 2019-2020 targets, except for the NSSE composite measure of students' perceived gains. These metrics, with the above exception, exhibit relative year over year stability. A possible explanation for the downward trend is the latent nature of higher-order skill development, whereby skill proficiency typically manifests significantly after instruction or learning. Queen's is confident that with the implementation of our current and planned teaching and learning initiatives, we will meet the 2019-2020 spirit of inquiry target. We continue to enhance and redevelop curriculum and programming, promoting flexible, high-quality online learning experiences that form the basis for new professional programs and certificates. Significant efforts have been made to broaden experiential learning opportunities at Queen's through Career Services' Experiential Learning Hub, in partnership with faculties and schools, and other strategies recommended by a university-wide task force. Queen's continues to build a strong educational environment to support student learning, with a renewed focus for the Centre for Teaching and Learning, the continued development of active learning spaces and the ongoing HEQCO-funded Learning Outcomes Assessment Project focusing on developing and assessing higher-order cognitive skills.

3. Access and Equity

This priority area recognizes institutions for their efforts in improving postsecondary education equity and access, and for creating opportunities that can include multiple entrance pathways and flexible policies and programming, with the focus on students who, without interventions and support, might not otherwise participate in postsecondary education.

Queen's metrics are all within or well above the 2019-2020 targets, and nearly all exhibit an increasing trend. Due to the timing of the report, OUAC data for 2017-2018 is not yet available for comment.

Queen's continues to work to improve access, equity, diversity and inclusion. The ongoing implementation of the recommendations of the university's Truth and Reconciliation

Part 1. Overview

Commission Task Force (2017) and the Principal's Implementation Committee on Racism, Diversity and Inclusion (2017) has included new pathways for first-generation students and increased financial support for visible minority and racialized students. The university has provided an opportunity for students with Indigenous ancestry to self-identify at any time through the student information system. To date, 324 students have self-identified using this option. In response to the growth in our Indigenous community, we expanded and renovated the Four Directions Indigenous Student Centre to increase support services, student spaces and programming. Also, Student Affairs has created a Diversity and Inclusivity Coordinator position to develop and enhance student support programs that promote inclusivity and to increase the visibility of available supports for underrepresented students.

4. Research Excellence and Impact

This priority area captures institutional strengths in producing high-quality research on the continuum of fundamental and applied research through activity that further raises Ontario's profile as a globally recognized research and innovation hub. It also acknowledges that research capacity is strongly linked with graduate education.

Queen's metrics are all within or well above the 2019-2020 targets, and nearly all exhibit an increasing trend. An exception is the International-funded research revenue, which is currently $1.5 million below the $7 million target (using a two-year average). Queen's currently ranks 5th in Canada for research intensity and 2nd in Canada for award-winning faculty. We have ambitious plans to increase our research capacity and impact by strengthening our relationships with current partners and establishing new collaborations, as well as by hiring 200 new faculty members who share our vision of research prominence and teaching excellence. Since 2013, Queen's scholars have been granted 41 patents and have facilitated the creation of more than 120 start-ups. They have also helped to create or retain more than 1000 jobs and have supported over 3500 students. We intend to build on this success by supporting innovation and enhancing our presence in economic development in both the Kingston and Eastern Ontario regions. Through our work with collaborators, communities, governments, and industry, we will accelerate knowledge translation and exchange, creating tangible economic impact from fundamental and applied research.

5. Innovation, Economic Development and Community Engagement

This priority area recognizes the unique role institutions play in contributing to their communities and to economic development, as well as to building dynamic partnerships with business, industry, community members and other colleges and universities. It focuses on regional clusters, customized training, entrepreneurial activities, jobs, community revitalization efforts, international collaborations, students, partnerships with Indigenous Institutes and a program mix that meets needs locally, regionally and beyond.

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
Strategic Mandate Agreement Annual Report 2017-18
Part 1. Overview

The spirit of innovation is thriving at Queen's. In this area, Queen's metrics are all within or well above the 2019-2020 targets. In 2017-18, Queen's provided partnership and innovation support to more than 300 faculty members and engaged with 600 organizations from industry, not-for-profits, and governments. This support included development of relationships and proposals in a variety of research areas, including autonomous vehicles, green aviation, ultra-deep mining, and Lyme disease. In 2017-18 Queen's delivered 35 acceleration programs; worked on more than 1350 agreements; and reviewed, negotiated, and signed or closed over 1050 research and research-related agreements. Mitchell Hall was completed in late 2018 and is the new home to facilities and programs such as the SparQ Studios and the Dunin-Deshpande Queen's Innovation Centre (DDQIC), which drive innovation and entrepreneurship activity in our community by providing students with the resources, mentors, and networks that will help to transform ideas into products and services. In early 2017 Queen's and the City of Kingston signed an MOU to guide the enhancement of student-led entrepreneurship within the community, to provide post-graduate internships to retain highly trained graduates and to facilitate collaboration on future community investment opportunities.

Appendix 2. University Metrics - Dictionary

ID	Metric Name	Description	Source	Reporting Period	Notes
8	Year 1 to Year 2 retention rate	Percentage of first-time, full-time undergraduate university students who commenced their study in a given Fall term and have continued to study at the same institution in the next Fall term	Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE)	Academic year, returning cohort. E.g., the 2016-17 data value reflects students who enrolled in Fall 2015 and returned to the institution in Fall 2016. Universities are asked to include 2016-17 and 2017-18 data	Based on cohort analysis by CSRDE and reported by universities through SMA Annual Reports. Compatible with CSRDE graduation rate
34	Proportion of fourth-year students with two or more High-Impact Practices (HIPs) (1)	Percentage of students who participated in two or more of the six High Impact Practices (HIPs) as identified in NSSE - service learning, learning community, research with a faculty member, internship or field experience, study abroad and culminating senior experience	National Report on "Customizable Items Selector", National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE)	Academic year when National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) is administered; e.g., data for 2014 NSSE is included under 2014-15. Most Ontario universities participate in the survey every three years and provide data only for these years (2014 and 2017). Universities that participate more frequently are asked to include all available information	Participation includes the percentage of students who responded "Done or in progress" for five HIPs (Q11) and at least "Some" of courses included a community-based project for service learning (Q12)
98	Average number of High Impact Practices (HIPs) per fourth-year student (1)	Average number of High-Impact Practices (HIPs) of the six HIPs identified in NSSE per respondent	National Report on "Customizable Items Selector", National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE)	Academic year when National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) is administered; e.g., data for 2014 NSSE is included under 2014-15. Most Ontario universities participate in the survey every three years and provide data only for these years (2014 and 2017). Universities that participate more frequently are asked to include all available information	Participation includes the percentage of students who responded "Done or in progress" for five HIPs (Q11) and at least "Some" of courses included a community-based project for service learning (Q12)

71	Proportion of operating expenses on student services	Percentage of total student services expenses, excluding scholarships and bursaries, in total operating expenses in a given fiscal year (consolidated values including affiliates where applicable)	Council of Ontario Finance Officers (COFO)	Fiscal Year. Ministry has pre-populated the 2016-17 data available from the COFO website. Universities are asked to add the 2017-18 information.	Proportion of operating expenses on student services is calculated as total student services expenses (Cell G36) minus scholarships, bursaries etc. (Cell 28) divided by total operating expenses (Cell L36) as per Table 6, COFO Financial Report of Ontario Universities
52	Graduation rate	Percentage of first-time, full-time undergraduate university students who commenced their study in a given Fall term and graduated from the same institution within 6 years	Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE)	Academic year, graduating cohort: e.g. 2015-16 data value reflects students who enrolled in Fall 2009 and graduated within six years, before or in calendar year 2015. Universities are asked to add 2016-17 and 2017-18 data.	Based on cohort analysis by CSRDE and reported by universities through SMA Annual Reports. Compatible with CSRDE retention rate
41	Proportion of programs with explicit curriculum maps and articulation of learning outcomes	Proportion of programs with explicit curriculum maps with articulation of learning outcomes	Institutional data	Academic year	As part of the Quality Assurance process introduced in 2010, all academic programs undergoing cyclical review are required to articulate learning outcomes in relation to undergraduate and graduate degree-level expectations. Curriculum mapping involves the articulation of learning outcomes at the course level.
35	Composite score on NSSE question related to fourth-year students perceived gains in higher order learning outcomes	Students' perceived gains in knowledge, skills and personal development	National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE)	Academic year when National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) is administered; e.g., data for 2014 NSSE is included under 2014-15. Most Ontario universities participate in the survey every three years and provide data only for these years (2014 and 2017). Universities that participate more frequently are asked to include all available information	Skills gains are measured as a simple sum of NSSE means for ten areas (Q17a-Q17j) including effective writing and speaking, critical thinking, numerical analysis, work-related knowledge and skills, team-work, problem-solving, being an informed and active citizen, understanding people of other backgrounds
