The Department of Political Studies at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching an undergraduate course in the Ethics of War and Intervention. This is an on campus lecture course with an expected enrolment of 22 students. Candidates should have a MA or PhD, and teaching experience at the University level. This is a winter term appointment for the period of September 1, 2019 to December 31, 2019, with classes in session from September 2, 2019 to November 29, 2019.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Department of Political Studies, Michelle Knapp-Hermer, knappm@queensu.ca, 613-533-6000 x36226.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen’s University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should be addressed to Dr. Zsuzsa Csergő, Department Head, Political Studies and should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. We encourage applicants to send all documents in their application packages electronically (either as PDFs or MS Word files) to Michelle Knapp-Hermer at knappm@queensu.ca although hard copy applications may be submitted to:

The Department of Political Studies
Mackintosh-Corry Hall, C316, Queen’s University
Kingston, Ontario CANADA K7L 3N6
Attn: Michelle Knapp-Hermer, Department Manager
Email: knappm@queensu.ca (preferred)

Applications will be received until April 19, 2019. Review of applications will commence shortly thereafter, and the final appointment is subject to budgetary approval. Additional information about the Department of Political Studies can be found at http://www.queensu.ca/politics.
