

EVERYTHING IS ILLUMINATED (USA, 2005) February 26
6:30 pm @ 105 Miller Hall

AFTERMATH (Poland, 2012), March 5
6:30 pm @ 105 Miller Hall

Russian and East European Studies Network Queen's University

“Memory Wars” is a film series hosted by REES Network at Queen’s University, and co-sponsored by the Jewish Studies program. Four films tackle history and memory: the twentieth-century wars, Jewish life, and the Holocaust, and the twenty-first-century complex “memory wars” that continue to animate politics across Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union.

MEMORY

FILM FESTIVAL

KINGSTON
FEBRUARY 12 - MARCH 26, 2019

WARS

SUNSHINE (Hungary, 1999) , March 12
6:30 pm @ 105 Miller Hall

OUR CHILDREN (Poland, 1949), March 26
6:30 pm @ 105 Miller Hall

Copyright: National Center for Jewish Film.

New digital restoration & new English subtitles
by National Center for Jewish Film.

The National Center
for Jewish Film
www.jewishfilm.org

All shows are free and open to the public. The movies are introduced by experts from the Queen’s Departments of Political Studies and History and the Jewish Studies Program. Screenings are followed by Q&A and discussion.