

The Department of Political Studies presents

RESPONSIBILITY AND HISTORIC INJUSTICE

Catherine Lu
McGill University

Thursday, November 29, 2012
2:30 – 4:00 pm
Mackintosh-Corry Hall, Rm. B-313

Biography:

Catherine Lu is Associate Professor of Political Science at McGill University. Her research and teaching interests revolve around international political theory and ethics, especially the ethical challenges of humanitarianism, intervention and atrocity; and cosmopolitanism, global justice and world government. Dr. Lu has received research and visiting fellowships from the School of Philosophy, Australian National University (2013), the Centre for Advanced Studies, Goethe University Frankfurt (2012), the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation (2010-11), the Centre for Ethics, University of Zürich (Spring 2008), and the Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics at Harvard University (2004-5). She is Co-Convenor of the Standing Group in International Political Theory (SGIPT) of the European Consortium on Political Research (ECPR). She is the author of Just and Unjust Interventions in World Politics: Public and Private (2006/2011), and has recently published articles in The Journal of Political Philosophy, the European Journal of Social Theory, and the Journal of International Political Theory.

This talk is a part of the Department of Political Studies Speaker Series.

