

The Department of Political Studies presents

AFRICA(S) & THE BRICS: MORE DEVELOPMENTAL OR FRAGILE STATES/ECONOMIES/REGIMES/REGIONS?

Tim Shaw

Carleton University
Visiting Professor, Aalborg University

Wednesday, January 11, 2012

2:30 – 4:00 pm

Mackintosh-Corry, Rm. B-313

Biography:

Dr. Tim Shaw has just concluded a decade animating postgraduate research institutes in London (as Director of the Institute of Commonwealth Studies, University of London) and Trinidad (as Director of the Institute of International Relations, University of the West Indies). Prior to this, he spent three decades at Dalhousie University, in both the Departments of Political Science and International Development Studies. Shaw has been a visiting professor at universities in Denmark, Nigeria, South Africa, Uganda, Zambia, and Zimbabwe. He is also a Senior Fellow at the Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI). His latest co-edited collections include Africa & IR in the 21st Century, Ashgate Research Companion to Regionalisms, and Rethinking Development Challenges for Public Policy.