Statement/Certification for Commercial Shipments of Non-Infectious Materials of Human Origin

Reference: (Air Waybill Number)________________________________________

To the best of our knowledge, the enclosed specimen of blood, (tissue, bone, etc.) does not contain infectious material and there is no reason to believe or suspect that there is any infectious matter in this specimen.

Signature of the person responsible: _______________________________________

Company: _______________________________________________________________

Department/Faculty: _______________________________________________________

Date: ________________________________