

COURSE DESCRIPTION

A survey of the history of modern psychology, from the 17th century to the present day. Important empirical findings in psychology and related disciplines will be examined in terms of their historical background and theoretical impact. Emphasis will be placed on understanding progress in the various subfields of psychology. In addition, the contribution of Canadian researchers to the emergence of modern day psychology will be discussed.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completing PSYC 397, students should be able to:

1. Describe philosophical traditions that laid the groundwork for modern psychology.
2. Identify the events in the history of scientific, applied, and professional psychology.
3. Outline key perspectives in scientific, applied, and professional psychology.
4. Understand how the development of psychology was shaped by external forces.
5. Identify important figures in the emergence of psychology and describe their contribution to the field.
6. Describe how psychology has and continues to shape society.
7. Evaluate the influence of Canadian research on modern psychology.

COURSE MATERIALS

The following material is available from the Queen's Campus Bookstore:

- King, D. B., Viney, W., & Woody, W. D. (2013). A History of Psychology: Ideas and Context. (5th ed.)
Print: ISBN-10 0-205-96304-8, ISBN-13 978-0-205-96304-1

SUGGESTED TIME COMMITMENT

Students can expect to spend approximately 10-12 hours a week in study/practice and online activity for this course.

WEIGHTING OF ASSESSMENTS

Quizzes (x6)	10%
Group Discussion	15%
Person in Psychology: Written Assignment	15%
Lecture Presentation	20%
Psychology in Canada: Group Written Assignment	10%
Participation	10%
Take-Home Final Exam	20%

Take-home Exam

All students are required to complete a take-home exam, consisting of a written response to a question that will be released at the end of the term. The question will be available over a one week period: you will have 48 hours to complete your response once you access the question. Your answer must be submitted through OnQ as a word or PDF document. There is no word limit and you are welcome to divide your response into sections using subheadings, if that is appropriate. Your primary resource to prepare your response will be the course textbook, although you are encouraged to incorporate other sources. All external sources, including the text book, must be cited and referenced using APA format.

GRADING

All components of this course will receive numerical percentage marks. The final grade you receive for the course will be derived by converting your numerical course average to a letter grade according to Queen's Official Grade Conversion Scale:

Queen's Official Grade Conversion Scale

Grade	Numerical Course Average (Range)
A+	90-100
A	85-89
A-	80-84
B+	77-79
B	73-76
B-	70-72

C+	67-69
C	63-66
C-	60-62
D+	57-59
D	53-56
D-	50-52
F	49 and below

CONTACTING THE TEACHING TEAM

The teaching team contact information is located on the Homepage of the course (see “Teaching Team”).

For general questions about the course, please post to the Course Questions Forum, (located under Help in the navigation bar). Feel free to help answer your peers’ questions on this forum. Most questions are answered within 24 hours.

Please use your Queen’s email for inquires that are more personal in nature, or for issues such as academic accommodations or marking. If you need to have a more detailed conversation, please contact your instructor.

COURSE FEEDBACK

At various points during the course, students may be asked to take part in a variety of feedback activities (such as questionnaires and exit tickets).

This feedback enables the team to make any adjustments necessary to improve the online learning environment. Additional student feedback will be sought throughout the course. All surveys are anonymous, and directly related to activities, assessments, and other course material.

NETIQUETTE

In any course you often communicate with your peers and teaching team through electronic communication. You are expected to use the utmost respect in your dealings with your colleagues or when participating in activities, discussions, and online communication.

Here is a list of netiquette guidelines. Please read them carefully and use them to guide your communication in this course and beyond.

1. Make a personal commitment to learn about, understand, and support your peers.
2. Assume the best of others and expect the best of them.

3. Acknowledge the impact of oppression on the lives of other people and make sure your writing is respectful and inclusive.
4. Recognize and value the experiences, abilities, and knowledge each person brings.
5. Pay close attention to what your peers write before you respond. Think through and re-read your writings before you post or send them to others.
6. It's ok to disagree with ideas, but do not make personal attacks.
7. Be open to being challenged or confronted on your ideas and to challenging others with the intent of facilitating growth. Do not demean or embarrass others.
8. Encourage others to develop and share their ideas.

QUEEN'S EMAIL

The university communicates with students via Queen's email. Please check your email regularly to ensure you do not miss important information related to your course.

COPYRIGHT

Course materials created by the course instructor, including all slides, presentations, handouts, tests, exams, and other similar course materials, are the intellectual property of the instructor. It is a departure from academic integrity to distribute, publicly post, sell or otherwise disseminate an instructor's course materials or to provide an instructor's course materials to anyone else for distribution, posting, sale or other means of dissemination, without the instructor's express consent. A student who engages in such conduct may subject to penalty for a departure from academic integrity and may also face adverse legal consequences for infringement of intellectual property rights.

ACCESSIBILITY/ACCOMMODATIONS

Queen's University is committed to achieving full accessibility for people with disabilities. Part of this commitment includes arranging academic accommodations for students with disabilities to ensure they have an equitable opportunity to participate in all of their academic activities. The Senate Policy for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities was approved at Senate in November 2016. If you are a student with a disability and think you may need academic accommodations, you are strongly encouraged to contact the Queen's Student Accessibility Services (QSAS) and register as early as possible. For more information, including important deadlines, please visit the QSAS website.

Students with course accommodations should contact ASO immediately following registration to inform them of any accommodations to their timed assessments and/or final exam(s).

ACADEMIC CONSIDERATIONS FOR STUDENTS IN EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

To submit a Request for Academic Consideration, go to: <https://www.queensu.ca/artsci/undergrad-students/academic-consideration-for-students>.

After you submit your request, it is essential that you contact your instructor(s) to discuss arrangements for completing the academic requirements that you have missed.

Academic consideration is meant to help you manage a short-term extenuating circumstance that is beyond your control and could affect your academics. This might be a sudden physical or mental illness, a serious injury or required treatment for yourself or a significant other, bereavement (e.g., death of a family member or close friend), or a traumatic event (e.g., sexual assault, divorce). Another example is an absence due to a significant event, such as participating in a varsity championship or performing at a national or international event.

Academic consideration for an extenuating circumstance may include but is not limited to:

- an excused absence
- a deferral
- an extension
- a modified schedule for assignments, projects, labs, or placements
- an alternative assignment
- a re-weighting of term marks
- permission for an incomplete grade
- course withdrawal without penalty (this requires an appeal to the Associate Dean of Studies)

Your instructor will determine what academic consideration is appropriate for your course based on the academic requirement(s) you may miss and the essential requirements/learning outcomes of the course. All students who receive academic consideration must meet all essential academic requirements/learning outcomes and standards of the course. Academic consideration does not guarantee academic achievement in a course/program.

Situation 1: Requests for academic consideration up to 3 days:

- Each student can make one request for academic consideration for up to 3 days without supporting documentation per academic term (i.e., Fall, Winter, Summer). Any additional requests for academic consideration for up to 3 days will require supporting documentation.
- Requests for academic consideration under 3 days must be submitted as soon as you require academic consideration and no later than 1 day after the 3 day consideration period has ended. (eg. if you are requesting academic consideration for September 10-12, you must have your request submitted into this system by September 13 at the latest).
- Delegates submitting a Request for Academic Consideration for Extenuating Circumstances form and supporting documentation on behalf of a student should contact the Faculty Office at asc.consideration@queensu.ca or 613-533-6000, ext. 75413 to arrange to complete the proper forms.

Situation 2: Requests for academic consideration between 4 days and 3 months:

- Requests for academic consideration between 4 days and 3 months should be made as soon as you require academic consideration.
- All requests for academic consideration between 4 days and 3 months require supporting documentation, which should be submitted within 5 business days of submitting the request or it will be withdrawn.
- All requests for academic consideration for extenuating circumstances between 4 days and 3 months must be submitted before the course has closed/ended.
- Delegates submitting a Request for Academic Consideration for Extenuating Circumstances form and supporting documentation on behalf of a student should contact the Faculty Office to arrange to complete the proper forms.
- If you have questions, please contact the Academic Consideration Team in the Faculty Office at: asc.consideration@queensu.ca or 613-533-6000, ext. 75413.

Situation 3: Requests for academic consideration during final exam periods:

- All requests (up to 3 days and between 4 days and 3 months) for academic consideration made during exam periods require supporting documentation.

Situation 4: Request for Excused Absence for Significant Event:

Students who are making a request for academic consideration related to a significant event must follow these steps outlined below. If you are participating in an event at the provincial, national, or international level that is either a Queen's Varsity Athletics event or an event to which you were invited as a distinguished guest, you can complete this form. Please submit requests a minimum of 2 weeks before the sanctioned events or as soon as the event is scheduled.

1. Gather the following information:

- A personal statement about why participation in the event is significant to you/Queen's
- Specific details about what is being missed (i.e., exactly what courses, what tests, what assignments, etc.)
- A copy of the invitation to participate/details about the competitions that determine who is invited
- Any other relevant details about the event (i.e., tournament information, schedules, team details, who is participating)

2. A minimum of two weeks before the sanctioned event, or as soon as the event is scheduled, complete and submit a Request for Excused Absence for Significant Event Form to either:

- Queen's Athletics and Recreation senior management team/Athletics Services Coordinator – Retention (athletics and Recreation Centre, 284 Earl Street), for varsity athletic events OR
- the Vice-Provost and Dean of Student Affairs (Gordon Hall, Room 300, 74 Union Street) for all other significant events
- BISC Students should submit their requests to the Student Services office at the Bader International Student Centre (BISC).

3. Upload your signed form to the Arts & Science Academic Consideration Portal. If you encounter technical difficulties please reach out to asc.consideration@queensu.ca

As soon as possible, follow-up with your instructor(s) either by email or in-person to discuss how you will be making up for the missed academic requirements. This may require you to complete academic requirements prior to being absent for the event.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Queen's students, faculty, administrators and staff all have responsibilities for upholding the fundamental values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility and courage. These values are central to the building, nurturing and sustaining of an academic community in which all members of the community will thrive. Adherence to the values expressed through academic integrity forms a foundation for the "freedom of inquiry and exchange of ideas" essential to the intellectual life of the University (see the Senate Report on Principles and Priorities).

Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the regulations concerning academic integrity and for ensuring that their assignments and their behaviour conform to the principles of academic integrity. Information on academic integrity is available in the Arts and Science Calendar (see Academic Regulation 1), on the Arts and Science website, and from the instructor of this course. Departures from academic integrity include plagiarism, use of unauthorized materials, facilitation, forgery and falsification, and are antithetical to the development of an academic community at Queen's. Given the seriousness of these matters, actions which contravene the regulation on academic integrity carry sanctions that can range from a warning or the loss of grades on an assignment to the failure of a course to a requirement to withdraw from the university.

STUDENTS STUDYING OR TRAVELLING ABROAD

If you plan to travel, we strongly recommend that you confirm Internet availability in your host country prior to departure. In the past, students in other countries have been blocked from accessing certain websites relevant to their courses, as well as onQ. It is the responsibility of all students to book travel around course work, as we cannot change the format or timing on assessments or assignments as a result of travel plans.
