Winter 2020 Final Exam Schedule

The April Exam schedule is now on SOLUS. Take time now to make a realistic study schedule. Don’t be caught unprepared! You can find instructions on how to view the full exam schedule here.

Spring 2020 Graduation Information

Attention all 4th year students ready to graduate this Spring:

Remember to apply for graduation via your SOLUS from Dec 1 to April 30. Submit your application only once all course registration for Winter 2020 is finalized and your AAR shows all requirements as “satisfied”. If you have any questions about your AAR, contact the Faculty Office for Arts & Science in Dunning Hall First Floor.

Mark your calendars! The Office of the University Registrar has published Convocation Dates for Spring 2020. Our Convocation Date is Wednesday, June 10th at 10:00 AM in the ARC.

Please see the website for further information:
http://www.queensu.ca/registrar/students/convocation/spring-2020

PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENTAL DEADLINES/EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

REMINDER: PSYC 501 APPLICATION DEADLINE COMING UP – MARCH 2

It's time to apply for PSYC 501! Please note the following deadlines:

- Deadline for students to submit applications -- Monday, March 2nd, 2020
- Deadline for students to submit rankings -- Monday, March 23rd, 2020
- Matching decisions announced -- Late-April, 2020
- Thesis eligibility confirmed-- Late-May, 2020

Minimum Criteria:
- The completion of PSYC 302/3.0 (or PSYC 300/6.0) by April 2020 with a minimum grade of C+ [unless you participated in exchange during the 2019-20 academic year];
- A minimum GPA of 2.60 between PSYC 202/3.0, PSYC 203/3.0, PSYC 301/3.0, and PSYC 302/3.0 (or PSYC 300/6.0);
- A minimum PSYC GPA (not including Supporting Science or PSYC_Subs credits) of 3.30 (equivalent to a B+), following submission of winter term grades.

NOTE: Students must have a minimum PSYC GPA of 3.00 (“B” average) at the time of application. Students with a GPA below this threshold who apply will be advised of their ineligibility.

Please make use of the ASC "GPA Calculator" to see if it is likely that you will meet the GPA requirements by the end of the winter term.

Please note that all students who meet the minimum criteria may apply for PSYC 501/9.0. However, not all students who meet the minimum criteria will be accepted into the thesis option. Because PSYC 501/9.0 is an intensive course of study, involving a significant amount of commitment from both the student and their Faculty supervisor, we can only accept a limited number of students. Acceptance is based primarily on (1) academic performance in Psychology courses, and (2) match in research interests with a potential supervisor.

Application Steps and Faculty Supervisory List can be found on our website: https://www.queensu.ca/psychology/undergraduate/current-students/course-information/psyc-501-information

PLAN SELECTION 2020

Advising sessions for First Year Plan Selection and Upper Year Change of Plans

We will be holding advising sessions in preparation for Plan Selection 2020! Choosing a major is one of the largest decisions students make in university and we are here to help!

First Year Arts & Science students: Please come to our informative session on Wednesday, March 11 from 6-7:30pm in Dupuis 217! Dr Norris, our Undergraduate Chair, will present information on all Psychology programs and answer questions about plan selection for Psychology for first year students.

Upper Year Change of Plan (RSVP required): If you are currently in a different major/program and would like to apply for the Psychology Major during this year’s plan selection, we will be holding an information session on Friday, March 6 from 2-3pm in Humphrey 223. Dr Norris, our Undergraduate Chair, will present information and answer questions. IMPORTANT: To ensure we have enough space for interested students to attend, you must email the UG Office to sign up. Please email your name to Anja at ug.psyc@queensu.ca by Thursday March 5 at 4 pm. If interest exceeds space, we will offer another session on March 13.

GLOBAL UNDERGRADUATE AWARDS

The Global Undergraduate Awards (UA) is the world’s leading academic awards program which recognizes top undergraduate coursework, shares this work with a global audience, and connects students across cultures and disciplines. Students submit their work for free online and it is judged by a panel of international judges, consisting of leading academic experts and industry leaders.

Why should you submit to The Global Undergraduate Awards?
1. Earn international recognition for academic coursework that you have already completed.
2. Win a FREE trip to Dublin to attend the UA Global Summit.
3. Have your work published in The Undergraduate Library.
4. Network with undergraduates and academics from around the world.
5. Receive access to the exclusive UA Alumni Portal.

How do I apply?

Submitting is free, quick, and simple! Just follow these steps to #AwardYourWork.
Don’t forget to check if your paper meets our submission criteria before submitting, otherwise your work may be disqualified!

Not ready to submit yet?
No worries, you can still register to reserve your place in the competition.
If you have any queries relating to The Global Undergraduate Awards 2020 Program, please Tom Collier at tom.collier@queensu.ca
The Psychology Foundation of Canada became the new home of the Canadian Psychological Association Foundation in 2015 and now administers the awards and grants programs.

Deadline for submission is March 31, 2020.

Now is the time that your thoughts are turning towards the next choices in your studies here at Queen’s University.

The Employment Relations Program has just newly launched their General BA/Minor in Employment Relations for you to consider when looking at your long term career path.

Employment Relations focuses on the relationship between employees and employers, and the laws and government policies that ensure an equitable and inclusive workplace. Setting workplace standards, negotiating collective agreements, protecting human rights and ensuring pay equity are vital to a productive and sustainable economy and improve the quality of life for all Canadians. The Employment Relations Programs at Queen’s offers students an opportunity to develop in-demand skills that will help shape the world of work. It’s your future - have a say in what it looks like.

Please join us at Major’s Night next week on February 27th at the Bioscience Atrium to promote our program, and we would also love to have you at our Open House on Wednesday March 4th at 4:30pm, where you are welcome for snacks, to meet our faculty and other students, as well as some of our current Master level candidates who can tell you more about where this exciting field can lead you.

Please register to join us here.

If you cannot join us or have other questions, please feel free to contact me directly with any questions you may have, or for more information on our program. Website: mir.queensu.ca

We look forward to meeting you at either of these events!

QUEEN’S READS AUTHOR VISIT MARCH 11

Join the Student Experience Office, Kingston Writer’s Fest and Stauffer Library in Grant Hall for a special Queen’s Reads event featuring author Tima Kurdi as she discusses her book The Boy on the Beach. The Boy on the Beach is an intimate and poignant memoir about the family of Alan Kurdi—a young Syrian boy who became the global emblem for the desperate plight of millions of Syrian refugees—and of the many extraordinary journeys the Kurdis have taken, spanning countries and continents. The Boy on the Beach explores newcomer experiences, the global refugee crisis, the politicization of tragedy, and the love and hope that one family shared in the face of grief and adversity.

A book signing will follow the onstage event. Books will be available for sale onsite for community members and a limited number of free copies will be available for Queen’s students, faculty and staff.

The event will take place on March 11th. Doors open at 6:30pm and the event starts at 7:00pm.

Students, faculty and staff can register for free here: https://careers.sso.queensu.ca/events.htm?evtId=8736

STRIKE A WIN IN SUPPORT OF BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS!

ARE YOU AND YOUR TEAM UP FOR A FRIENDLY COMPETITION IN SUPPORT OF A GREAT CAUSE?

Well … We’ve got just the event for you!

WE WOULD LIKE TO INVITE YOU TO BE A PART OF OUR ANNUAL BOWL FOR KIDS SAKE!

Every year, the Kingston community comes together to fundraise for Big Brothers Big Sisters of KFL&A until the end of March. We all celebrate in an enjoyable day of bowling, contests and prizes.

You can support us and partake on the fun by registering a bowling team of 4-6 people for $60 for one game or $100 for two games. Price includes shoe rentals, food, music, and a cosmic bowling experience! With just $16 per person, you can have a fun-filled afternoon while sparking change in the community by helping children develop the skills and knowledge they need to thrive in life!

All the money raised stays in our community and goes into our mentoring programs, which help children and youth right here in Kingston rise above adversity and grow into accomplished and confident adults. We currently have 83 children waiting for a mentor and the funds you raise help us find, thoroughly screen, train, and support suitable mentors to match these children.

Challenge your friends or a fellow community group to see who can raise the most, dress to impress, and get top bowling scores for bragging rights and exciting prizes. After the event, we will announce the winners and award top prizes!

There are many ways to support us: PUT TOGETHER A BOWLING TEAM, CHALLENGE YOUR FRIENDS, SPREAD THE WORD, or MAKE A DONATION. Donations of $20 or more are eligible for tax receipts.

SAVE THE DATE, REGISTER YOUR TEAM, AND JOIN THE FUN!

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION OPENS SOON!

Join us on Sunday, March 29th at Cloverleaf Lanes and spark change in the lives of young ones!

To RSVP and learn more about registering a team or how to get involved, please contact:

Greetings from the Equity Office;

Please join us on March 3rd, 2020 for the 2019 Tri-Awards Celebration and Keynote address.

Our keynote this year features circus artist and coach, Erin Ball. In addition to many ongoing artistic projects, Erin developed a workshop aimed at increasing accessibility in circus arts and in 2017 hosted her first amputee circus camp. Erin will speak to her experiences as an amputee in the circus arts and also perform a demonstration of her Extended Body showpiece.

In addition to the keynote, attendees will also be part of our annual Tri-Awards celebration, honouring accomplishments in the areas of employment equity, accessibility and human rights.

Seating for this event is limited so please register early https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/human-rights-and-equity-office-tri-awards-celebration-tickets-84652246147

Please help us to plan an accessible and inclusive event by identifying any personal requirements, dietary or otherwise, that you may have. Please contact us in advance at equity@queensu.ca and we will help meet your accommodation and inclusion needs.

Food Centre, AMS: A non-profit, confidential, and non-judgmental food service for members of the Queen’s community.

Peer Support Centre:
The Peer Support Centre is a service on campus that provides one-on-one peer support to all undergraduate students. It thrives on being confidential and non-judgmental. Every student is always welcome to drop-in for a chat or resource referral. Students are free to talk about anything they choose. No problem is too big or too small! We are open 10am - 10pm, 7 days a week starting in September.

Disability Services
Student Wellness Services assists students in the following ways:
- Recommends exam accommodations
- Facilitates access to material in alternate formats
- Provides assistive technologies
- Coordinates learning strategies and library research workshops
- Coordinates volunteer note-taking and peer mentor programs

NOTE: Students with disabilities who wish to make use of the services available must register at Disability Services every academic year and must forward supporting documentation to the Student Wellness Services Office.

Other disability services offered at Queen’s include...
- Learning Strategies Development: This program enhances students’ ability to learn effectively and helps students develop greater confidence in their abilities.
- Learning Disabilities Specialists: Offered through the Regional Assessment and Resource Centre, these specialists provide assessment and services for students with possible learning disabilities and other neuropsychological conditions.
- InvisAbilities: A student organization promoting awareness, education, and support of young adults living with hidden chronic illness. Started at Queen’s in 2009, the group has spread to include chapters at McGill University, University of Ottawa, Brock University, and University of Calgary.

Academic Support
The transition to university life is a big one – and part of it is adjusting to the challenges and workload that are part of being a Queen’s student. At Queen’s you are never alone. We have many offices dedicated to helping you learn, think, and do.

The Learning Commons
The Queen’s Learning Commons (QLC) is both a hub of services supporting formal academic programs and a meeting place within Stauffer Library. It encompasses physical and online environments, accommodating different approaches to learning.
The QLC provides resources, workshops and seminars, and one-on-one professional consultations for students who want to enhance or develop their skills. The QLC is composed of:

- The Adaptive Technology Centre / Library Services for Students with Disabilities
- IT Services: Services include many learning resources and workshop opportunities
- Queen’s Library: Services include Subject Liaison Librarians who can help you locate resources for your field of study
- Student Academic Success Services who can help you improve your writing and academic skills and confidence through online resources, workshops and individual appointments.
