When you RSVP we will send you more detailed information and a Zoom link to the event.
Life After ArtSci, ASUS’ alumni networking and career summit, is going virtual this year on November 7th!

With speakers from the UN to NASA to the cannabis industry, Life After ArtSci promises to help open new doors to all Arts and Science students. Students will also have the opportunity to engage in one to one networking with these alumni, which is perfect for any students searching for a summer job!

Students will have the opportunity to hear from alumni in four exciting panels:

- Careers in the Sciences
- Politics, Law, and Government
- Technology, Innovation, and Change
- Marketing, Consulting, and Creativity

Students in Psychology might be especially interested to hear from Eric Bremermann (Psychology ‘90) – Partner, Stikeman Elliott LLP, and Michael Coulson (Politics ‘90) - Marketing Consultant, ARRIS, speakers in our Politics, Law, and Government and Marketing, Consulting, and Creativity panels. The summit runs from 10am-2:45pm, and only costs $5. Registration is open HERE, and we also have an event on Facebook. Any questions can be directed to president@asus.queensu.ca.
We are pleased to announce that, in response to user demand, we will be increasing the hours that our bookable seats are available, effective immediately.

Stauffer Library will be open 8 am-10 pm Monday to Friday and remain closed Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Individual study seats will be available for advanced booking by students in three blocks per day: 8 am-12 pm, 1-5 pm and 6-10 pm. We will also be increasing the booking limit to 40 hours per month per person. Users are encouraged to use the check in feature prior to entering the library to help reduce wait times. Check in is accomplished through the confirmation email and is available 30 minutes prior to the start of your booking.

The Archives and W. D. Jordan Rare Books and Special Collections will be moving individual access by appointment to Wednesdays and Thursdays, effective immediately. Researchers can consult collections by appointment on Wednesdays and Thursdays between 9 am-noon, and 1-4 pm.

We are also pleased to offer a controlled reserve reading room service only for courses that have been approved for on-campus delivery. This service will be provided in the 1966 Reading Room in Douglas Library.
At Student Academic Success Services (SASS), we offer free and confidential professional writing and peer writing appointments that support all undergraduate and graduate students in any year and program. Our writing services are designed to guide you in your academics and help you develop your writing skills so you're successful at Queen's and beyond. Read on to see our appointments can support you!

Professional writing appointments

Our professional writing consultants support all undergraduate and graduate students at Queen’s. Appointments can be used to receive help with any writing project including essays, lab reports, literature reviews, case reports, and much more. Consultants can help you:

- Understand an assignment, brainstorm ideas, develop an argument, revise a draft, improve grammar and style, discuss and analyze sources, and more.

You can bring your writing at any stage; you don't have to wait to until your work is complete!

Peer writing appointments

Our Peer Writing Assistants (PWAs) are upper-year Queen's undergrad and graduate students who specialize in assisting with various areas of writing for 1st & 2nd-year courses. We have 3 kinds of PWAs:

- General Peer Writing Assistants can help with any paper from any subject.
- Science Peer Writing Assistants can assist with written assignments from any science discipline, including lab reports, design projects, technical projects, and literature reviews.
- EAL Peer Writing Assistants can help with English writing skills to improve grammar, structure, style, and more.

You can book up to 2 peer writing appointments per week, so you can get as much help as you need!

TEACHING AWARDS
Nominate a Professor or TA!

We are currently accepting TA and Professor nominations from students for the W.J. Barnes Award and the Teaching Excellence Award. This is a chance to recognize and honour the exceptional contributors to the academic life here at Queen’s that shape student experience in the Faculty of Arts and Science.

The nomination forms can be found below:

For the WJ Barnes Award (for Professors), see HERE
For the Teaching Excellence Award (for TAs): see HERE

Students are encouraged to nominate teaching staff who have enhanced their learning experience during this unconventional remote semester.
NOMINATION FORM NOW OPEN!

It’s that time of year again! The nomination form for our annual Tri-awards is officially open. Each year, the Human Rights and Equity Office acknowledges the efforts and progress of faculty, staff and students who create a positive impact on the University community in the areas of Human Rights, Employment Equity and Accessibility. Any member of the Queen’s community including students, staff, faculty or alumni as well as members of the general Kingston community who have an interest in Queen’s University may submit nominations.

We know great things are happening at Queen's and here is your chance to have an individual, group or initiative recognized for their outstanding contributions to the University.

Please follow the link below to submit a nomination, learn more about the awards and to see our past winners:

The UA 2021 Programme is now accepting submissions!

Click HERE for more information!

We are delighted to announce that The Global Undergraduate Awards 2021 Programme is now open and we are accepting submissions to our 25 categories.

We are inviting undergraduate students or recent graduates from Queen’s University to submit up to three pieces of undergraduate coursework to The Global Undergraduate Awards 2021 Programme.

The UA Programme is a great opportunity for:

- Students to have their work recognised internationally and to win a free ticket to present their research at our Global Summit in Dublin, Ireland.
- It is also a great opportunity for Queen’s University to demonstrate the quality of its education.
The Pathy Foundation Fellowship

Now accepting applications for the 2021-22 cohort!

The Pathy Foundation Fellowship is an exciting opportunity for graduating students from Queen’s (one of only five universities in Canada eligible) to engage in an intensive 12-month leadership program designed to support them in implementing a community development project anywhere in the world. Successful candidates will receive up to $40,000 in funding and receive formal training in Community Change at the Coady International Institute.

The 12-month fellowship is for graduating undergraduate and masters students who have:

- The capacity and potential to develop as effective change-agents;
- A meaningful connection with a community of their choosing anywhere in the world; and
- An innovative idea of how this community could be strengthened.

Please visit www.pathyfellowship.com for more information and see our flyer below. We also provide 1-1 student advising: appointment requests can be sent to pathyfellowship@queensu.ca
