Individual study seats will be available for advanced booking by students in three blocks per day: 8 am-12 pm, 1-5 pm and 6-10 pm. We will also be increasing the booking limit to 40 hours per month per person. Users are encouraged to use the check in feature prior to entering the library to help reduce wait times. Check in is accomplished through the confirmation email and is available 30 minutes prior to the start of your booking.

The Archives and W. D. Jordan Rare Books and Special Collections will be moving individual access by appointment to Wednesdays and Thursdays, effective immediately. Researchers can consult collections by appointment on Wednesdays and Thursdays between 9 am-noon, and 1-4 pm.

We are also pleased to offer a controlled reserve reading room service only for courses that have been approved for on-campus delivery. This service will be provided in the 1966 Reading Room in Douglas Library.
Writing support at SASS

At Student Academic Success Services (SASS), we offer free and confidential professional writing and peer writing appointments that support all undergraduate and graduate students in any year and program. Our writing services are designed to guide you in your academics and help you develop your writing skills so you're successful at Queen's and beyond. Read on to see our appointments can support you!

Professional writing appointments

Our professional writing consultants support all undergraduate and graduate students at Queen's. Appointments can be used to receive help with any writing project including essays, lab reports, literature reviews, case reports, and much more. Consultants can help you:

- Understand an assignment, brainstorm ideas, develop an argument, revise a draft, improve grammar and style, discuss and analyze sources, and more.

You can bring your writing at any stage; you don't have to wait to until your work is complete!

Peer writing appointments

Our Peer Writing Assistants (PWAs) are upper-year Queen’s undergrad and graduate students who specialize in assisting with various areas of writing for 1st & 2nd-year courses. We have 3 kinds of PWAs:

- General Peer Writing Assistants can help with any paper from any subject.
- Science Peer Writing Assistants can assist with written assignments from any science discipline, including lab reports, design projects, technical projects, and literature reviews.
- EAL Peer Writing Assistants can help with English writing skills to improve grammar, structure, style, and more.

You can book up to 2 peer writing appointments per week, so you can get as much help as you need!

We are currently accepting TA and Professor nominations from students for the W.J. Barnes Award and the Teaching Excellence Award. This is a chance to recognize and honour the exceptional contributors to the academic life here at Queen's that shape student experience in the Faculty of Arts and Science.

The nomination forms can be found below:

For the WJ Barnes Award (for Professors), see HERE
For the Teaching Excellence Award (for TAs): see HERE

Students are encouraged to nominate teaching staff who have enhanced their learning experience during this unconventional remote semester.
Do you know a professor or teaching assistant at Queen's University that has shown outstanding commitment to the education of their students? Now is your chance to nominate a teacher you think is deserving of an AMS Teacher's award! We are currently accepting nominations from students for:

- Frank Knox Award for Excellence in Teaching: submit form HERE
- Christopher Knapper Award for Excellence in Teaching: submit form HERE
- Undergraduate Research Mentorship Award: submit form HERE

This is a chance to recognize and honour the exceptional contributors to the academic life here at Queen's that shape the student experience. To nominate or read more about each award, please visit myams.org/awards and click on the award title! Nominations are due November 9th at midnight. Have questions? Email cea.outreach@ams.queensu.ca!

Frank Knox Award for Excellence in Teaching

Recognize and acknowledge Queen's University professors that demonstrate an outstanding commitment to the education of their students through their remarkable teaching. The award is named in honour of Frank Knox, a professor of economics who taught at Queen's from the 1920's to the 1960's. Professor Knox demonstrated tremendous dedication in his teaching of undergraduates.

Christopher Knapper Award for Excellence in Teaching

Honours several teaching assistants who have demonstrated an outstanding commitment to the education of students of Queen's University. This award is named in honour of Christopher Knapper, the founding Director of the Instructional Development Centre (IDC). During his time as the Director of the IDC, Chris Knapper showed genuine concern about the needs of students and did a great job of furthering the educational environment at Queen's.

Undergraduate Research Mentorship Award

This is the inaugural year for the Undergraduate Research Mentorship Award. This award is meant to honour the contributions of professors that have encouraged undergraduate research at Queen's. This comes in many forms, such as thesis supervision, inquiry projects in the classroom, or supervising a capstone project. This is an initiative to recognize excellent mentorship of undergraduate scholars.

Deadline to nominate is January 11, 2021.

The UA 2021 Programme is now accepting submissions!

Click HERE for more information!

We are delighted to announce that The Global Undergraduate Awards 2021 Programme is now open and we are accepting submissions to our 25 categories.

We are inviting undergraduate students or recent graduates from Queen's University to submit up to three pieces of undergraduate coursework to The Global Undergraduate Awards 2021 Programme.

The UA Programme is a great opportunity for:

- Students to have their work recognised internationally and to win a free ticket to present their research at our Global Summit in Dublin, Ireland.
- It is also a great opportunity for Queen's University to demonstrate the quality of its education.
The Pathy Foundation Fellowship

Now accepting applications for the 2021-22 cohort!

The Pathy Foundation Fellowship is an exciting opportunity for graduating students from Queen’s (one of only five universities in Canada eligible) to engage in an intensive 12-month leadership program designed to support them in implementing a community development project anywhere in the world. Successful candidates will receive up to $40,000 in funding and receive formal training in Community Change at the Coady International Institute.

The 12-month fellowship is for graduating undergraduate and masters students who have:

- The capacity and potential to develop as effective change-agents;
- A meaningful connection with a community of their choosing anywhere in the world; and
- An innovative idea of how this community could be strengthened.

Please visit www.pathyfellowship.com for more information and see our flyer below. We also provide 1-1 student advising: appointment requests can be sent to pathyfellowship@queensu.ca

The deadline for applications is NOVEMBER 12, 2020
You want to explore entrepreneurship or social innovation as a career path, and the Dunin-Deshpande Queen’s Innovation Centre (DDQIC) wants to help. Every year, DDQIC selects around 50 ambitious candidates to be a part of the Queen’s Innovation Centre Summer Initiative (QICSI) program. QICSI is for pre-formed teams and individuals with a capacity for creativity, a tolerance for risk, and a desire to build a venture that creates an impact.

COVID-19 Study
Seeking Participants

Our online study aims to look at the impact of COVID-19 infection on memory and cognition in the short and medium-term. The study will recruit participants who have/have not experienced COVID infection and conduct assessments of memory and executive functions to compare these groups, explore the significance of given symptoms for potential cognitive consequences, carry out follow-up assessments to investigate the time-course of potential impairment in those who have experienced infection, carry out follow-up assessments investigating both pre- and post-infection performance (in participants who develop COVID between follow-ups).

For more information and to sign up, click HERE

COVID-19 May have long-lasting effects on memory and cognition

Help us understand by taking part in our ONLINE study

We are looking for people who HAVE and HAVE NOT had COVID-19. We will then ask to follow some people up to see how their experience changes over time.
