Dear Deans, Directors, and Department Heads:

Please pass this on to faculty within your Faculties and Departments. Thank you!

With ongoing uncertainty about the upcoming academic year, here's a resource (provided by the Centre for Teaching and Learning) to assist you...

Announcing the CTL’s Transforming Teaching Toolkit!

The Transforming Teaching Toolkit was developed in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, but contains resources and principles that will serve any teaching situation. Components include:

- Start Here topics guides with resources, strategies, and recommended technologies for six key areas of teaching and learning
- a live webinar series offered in Summer 2020
- a self-assessment tool for instructors to evaluate their own needs and next steps

The Toolkit will be updated regularly with additional resources throughout the summer.

- Start Here Guides
  - Inclusive Community
  - Course Organization
  - Student Engagement
  - Assessment Strategies
  - Tech Solutions
  - Communications

- Self-Assessment Tool
- May/June webinar series
