

DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY PSYCHOLOGY AND LEADERSHIP ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE OF CANADA

The Department of Military Psychology and Leadership (MPL) of the Royal Military College of Canada (RMC) has two openings for indeterminate full time Assistant Professor of psychology with anticipated start dates of June 1st 2021 and Oct 1st 2021. These are bilingual imperative positions and successful candidates will be expected to deliver courses in both official languages. Second language testing will be arranged through our HR department in accordance with Treasury Board guidelines.

The required qualifications are a PhD from a recognized university in the field of Psychology (focusing on/or specializing in Mental health, Leadership or Cross-cultural psychology) and a current record of publication (within the last 5 years) in peer-reviewed journals in the domains of mental health, leadership or cross-cultural psychology.

The Royal Military College of Canada is a bilingual university offering undergraduate and graduate programs in the humanities, sciences and engineering to members of the Canadian Forces and civilians. The psychology program offered by MPL is primarily undergraduate (BA and Honours BA), but there are opportunities to teach graduate level courses for other departments like War Studies. Kingston is a beautiful and historic city at the confluence of Lake Ontario, the St. Lawrence River and the Rideau Canal system. Easily accessible from Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal, Kingston offers a diverse array of local music, art, history, theatre and live entertainment that attracts thousands of tourists annually. Kingston has also been designated as a bilingual city by the Government of Ontario.
