

Pro bono and Legal Aid Clinic as Stimulants: Cultivate Professional Identity and Ethical Resilience through Reflective Legal Aid Practice

By: Dr Ripal Gupta
Assistant Professor

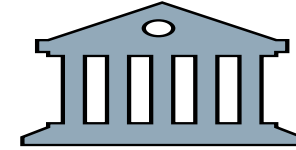

School of Law, Forensic Justice & Policy Studies National Forensic Sciences University, Gandhinagar, India

Understand
legal challenges
at ground level

Identification of Gap in application of Law

Promote rights awareness and available policies.

Connect with communities

Research law and Policies

Understand
Lawyer's Role

Legal education through Pro bono and Legal Aid Activities

Legal education through Pro bono and Legal Aid Activities

Bridge to access to justice

Connect with local executive machineries

Can learn drafting skills

Able to understand
client counseling techniques

Research on real problems

Provide with mediation training

Experiential activities through Pro bono

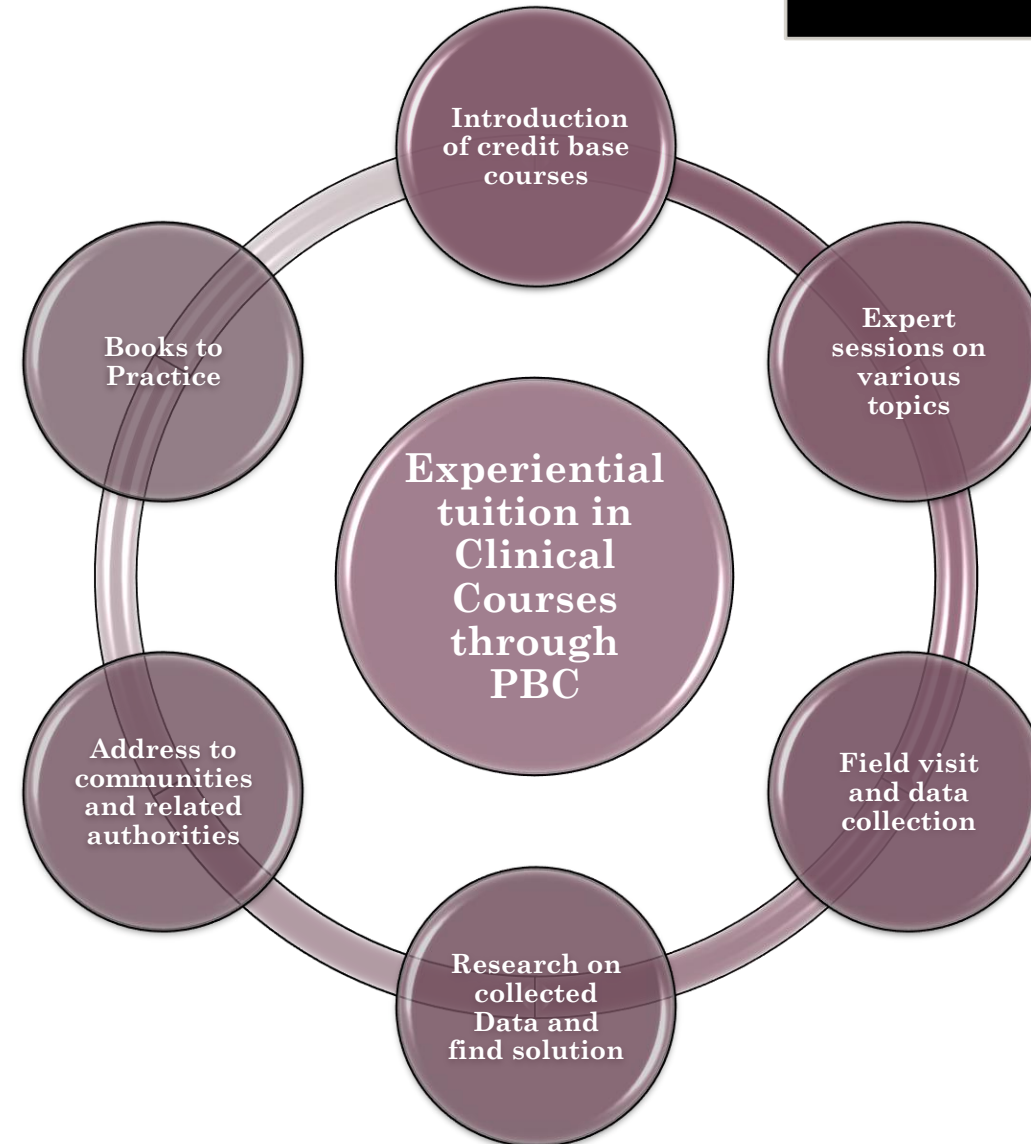

Experiential activities through Pro bono

Visits at Local Government Bodies

Dissemination of Legal policies to community

Parliamentary debates

Panel Discussion amongst Students

Visits

Visit to local villages and district and schools

Bridge

Connect with relevant executionary machineries to make a bridge to access to justice

Dissemination

Create awareness of Law, and Policies related to law and child rights

Techniques of dissemination

Role play, reel making, poster distribution

Out come of experiential activity

Practical understanding of law from acts to actions of executive machineries

Research on real cases and Address issues to state authorities to a help in access to justice

Could able to understand role of each agencies connected with law and identify gaps in execution

Outcomes of Clinical Education

Ripal.gupta@nfsu.ac.in