Closing Remarks

Dr. Patrick Deane, Principal and Vice-Chancellor

Please join in the singing of O Canada

*O CANADA! our home and native land!
True patriot-love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free,
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.*

*God keep our land, glorious and free,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

*O CANADA! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.*

*Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

Recession

Audience should remain standing while the platform party and graduates recess.

HONORARY GRADUAND

November 3, 10 am

Uzma Jalaluddin

Uzma Jalaluddin writes heartfelt and nuanced stories about first-and-second-generation South Asian and Muslim immigrants. She is the author of Detective Aunty (2025), featuring Kausar Khan, a South Asian Miss Marple, as well as Much Ado About Nada (2023), inspired by Jane Austen's Persuasion, which the New York Times described as, "in a word, brilliant." Her novel Three Holidays and a Wedding (2023), was co-written with Marissa Stapley, and was a Good Morning America Buzz Pick. Her debut novel, Ayesha at Last (2019), was a Cosmopolitan UK Book of the Year and Publisher's Weekly Best Book of 2019. Her second novel, Hana Khan Carries On (2021) was named a 2021 Best Romance Novel by the Washington Post. Her first play, The Rishta was performed at the Centaur Theatre in Montreal. Uzma is a high school teacher and former contributor to The Toronto Star, and The Atlantic. She lives outside Toronto, Canada, with her husband and two sons.

HONORARY GRADUAND

November 3, 2:30 pm

Senator Rosemary Moodie

The Honourable Senator Rosemary Moodie is an independent Senator for Ontario, born in Jamaica and recognized nationally and internationally as a distinguished pediatrician, senior neonatologist, and Professor of Paediatrics at the University of Toronto. She holds both a Master of Business Administration (University of Toronto) and a Master of Public Administration (Queen's University), reflecting her dual commitment to excellence in health care and public policy.

In the Senate of Canada, Senator Moodie serves as Chair of the Standing Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology and as a member of the Standing Committee on Internal Economy, Budgets and Administration. A leading voice on emerging technologies—particularly Artificial Intelligence—she launched a Senate inquiry into its societal implications. She also serves as Co-Chair of the Parliamentary Black Caucus and Chair of the African Canadian Senate Group.

Throughout her career, Senator Moodie has worked to reduce social inequities and health disparities, earning the title “Children’s Senator” for her unwavering advocacy on behalf of women, children, and marginalized communities. She has sponsored Bill C-35, establishing a national early learning and childcare system; introduced Bill S-212, a National Strategy for Children; and championed Bill S-210, creating the Office of the Commissioner for Children in Canada. Her leadership in a national consultation further underscored the urgent need for such an office.

A passionate advocate for racial equity, Senator Moodie initiated the Senate’s historic Emergency Debate on Systemic Racism and, as Chair of the Parliamentary Black Caucus, brought critical issues facing Black Canadians to the forefront of government attention. She has advanced recommendations based on disaggregated data, influenced equitable hiring practices in the Senate, and promoted a more inclusive legislative environment. Internationally, she has partnered with the U.S. Congressional Black Caucus, co-chaired the Canada-CARICOM Friendship Group, and led Canada’s delegation to the Ghana Commonwealth Parliamentary Association Conference, contributing to the global dialogue on racial equity and inclusion.

Senator Moodie’s contributions have been recognized with numerous awards and honours, including the Order of Ontario. Her work embodies Queen’s University’s values of leadership, equity, and service, and her legacy is defined by transformative action—championing the rights of women and children, dismantling systemic barriers, and shaping policies for a fairer society

AWARDS

Chancellor A. Charles Baillie Teaching Award

Established in October 2003, this award recognizes a faculty member whose teaching at the undergraduate or graduate level has had an outstanding influence on the quality of student learning. It is awarded for activities that lead to improved learning, including curriculum development, educational leadership, design, and delivery of out-of-classroom educational experiences, or classroom teaching and supervision.

Michelle Searle

Dr. Michelle J. Searle, OCT, CE, PhD, is an Associate Professor of Educational Evaluation in the Faculty of Education at Queen's University. She currently serves as Special Advisor to the Principal on Community Engagement, Director of the Assessment and Evaluation Group, and Associate Director of the Centre for Community Engagement and Social Change. Trained as both an educator and evaluator, Dr. Searle brings expertise in program evaluation, classroom assessment, creative arts, and mixed methods research, with a strong emphasis on community-engaged pedagogy. Her scholarship prioritizes collaboration and interdisciplinarity, advancing learning and social change through co-created knowledge and evaluative inquiry.

Dr. Searle's research program, supported by more than $7 million in funding, addresses urgent societal issues including youth mental health, gender-based violence, equity in education, and the inclusion of neurodiverse and gender-diverse students. She is widely recognized for her innovative use of arts-informed inquiry and for integrating community partnerships into teaching and research. She is a leader in the Evaluation Capacity Network, a SSHRC funded national initiative fostering dialogue, capacity building, and resources for decolonial and community-driven evaluation. Over her career, she has produced more than 45 peer-reviewed publications, 18 book chapters, and over 60 evaluation reports, complemented by research-based art installations, practitioner blogs, and more than 125 presentations at national and international conferences.

A dedicated educator, Dr. Searle has taught 18 courses at Queen's and has consistently been recognized for her excellence in teaching, mentorship, and educational leadership. She has received multiple awards for teaching and graduate supervision, culminating in the 2025 Chancellor A. Charles Baillie Teaching Award. Her passion for fostering inclusive, creative, and transformative learning environments reflects her belief that teaching is a shared journey of discovery, one that empowers students, strengthens communities, and bridges academia with real-world impact.

INDIGENOUS GIFTING CEREMONY

Every year, Four Directions Indigenous Student Centre (FDISC), on behalf of the University, the Indigenous Council of Queen's University (ICQU) and the Vice-Provost and Dean of Student Affairs, presents graduating Indigenous students with special gifts during their convocation ceremonies.

In honour of their accomplishments as Indigenous graduates of Queen's University, they are gifted with either a Blackfoot Peoples Mountain Blanket, a Metis sash, a drum, or a feather fan.

The Blackfoot Peoples Mountain Blanket was chosen because the rich colours and fabric patterns honour our Mother Earth. Following convocation, the Indigenous graduates are invited back to FDISC to put their handprint on the canvas wall hangings, along with their name, program, year of graduation and community, leaving their mark on Queen's in perpetuity.

"In my community we have oheroton, a rite of passage ceremony. I was never able to participate. Receiving this gift was like my own rite of passage, reaffirming that we will succeed as indigenous people within these institutions"
– J. Sunday, Akwesasne (BSc Kinesiology 2019)

THE ACADEMIC HOOD

The hood as an academical vestment is distinctly British and is worn by graduates of English-speaking universities all over the world. In its original form it was the upper part of the cowl worn by the Monks and Friars of the Middle Ages. The hood covered the head during inclement weather and in the draughty cloisters when taking exercise. If not needed for this purpose it could be pulled off and allowed to hang behind over the tippet. The tippet was the lower part, a short cape, reaching to the elbow and forming a very welcome article of clothing in the monasteries and hostels which were still unglazed at the end of the 15th century. Indeed, it would appear that glass was not in general use until 1650, for three years later an order was issued to all students at Oxford to “keep his chamber windows in repair after they have once been glazed by the college”. The cowl still forms part of the dress of the religious orders, but the hood, separated from the tippet now denotes a graduate of some British or American University or similar institution while the tippet is worn by certain dignitaries of both the Roman and the Anglican church. A smaller type is also used to distinguish Diocesan Readers.

THE COAT OF ARMS

The Coat of Arms of the University that hangs behind the Chancellor's dais is based on that of Edinburgh University, the institution after which Queen's was modeled. The Coat of Arms consists of a gold shield with red edges, divided into four triangular compartments by a blue, diagonal St. Andrew's cross, which represents the university's Scottish origins. A golden book, symbolizing learning, sits open at the centre of the cross. In each of the four compartments is an emblem of the university's Canadian and British origins: a pine tree for Canada, a thistle for Scotland, a rose for England, and a shamrock for Ireland. The red colour of the border is a mark of cadency, indicating that Queen's is younger than Edinburgh University. The border is decorated with eight gold crowns, symbolic of Queen Victoria and the university's royal charter. The official heraldic description of the coat of arms is: "Or on a Saltire Azure between in chief a Fir tree eradicated in base a Thistle stalked and leaved in fesse a Red Rose barbed seeded stalked and leaved all proper and a Trefoil Vert an open Book of the first a Bordure also Gules charged with eight Ancient Crowns Gold". The shield is underlined by the Latin phrase "Sapientia et Doctrina Stabilitas" which is translated as "Wisdom and Learning shall be the stability of thy times".

Although the Coat of Arms has been in use since the 20th century, it was not until 1953 that it was sanctioned by the College of Arms of England and subsequently registered through Letters Patent, dated 27 November 1981, and recorded in the Public Register of All Arms and Bearings in Scotland, that is the Court of the Lord Lyon, Edinburgh, Scotland. On 30 September 1991, during Queen's Sesqui-centennial Celebrations, the Coat of Arms was registered in the Canadian Registry of Flags, Arms and Badges.

‘OIL THIGH’

Written in 1898, this song is a distinctive Queen’s tradition, performed at sporting events and most University occasions. It consists of the old song “Queen’s College Colours,” often sung to the accompaniment of a low-kicking can-can dance. In most instances, the song is sung beginning with the chorus, followed by the first verse of the lyrics, and ending with the chorus one last time.

The name “Oil Thigh” comes from the chorus of the song, which begins with the Gaelic words “Oil thigh na Banrighinn a’Banrighinn gu brath” (“The college of the wife of the King forever”). At football games, it is a tradition that students perform an ‘Oil Thigh’ after every touchdown.

The lyrics are sung to the traditional tune used for the American ‘Battle Hymn of the Republic’.

Lyrics

*Queen’s College Colours we are wearing once again,
Soiled as they are by the battle and the rain,
Yet another victory to wipe away the stain!
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus: Oil thigh, na Banrighinn...

*Varsity’s not invincible, they tremble at the news
Of Queen’s College Colours and are shaking in their shoes.
Yet another victory, the chance we dare not lose.
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus: Oil thigh, na Banrighinn...

*McGill has met defeat before, they’ve heard
the same old tale
Of Queen’s College Colours, boys,
the ones that seldom fail,*

*Remember Captain Curtis and the conquerors of Yale,
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus: Oil thigh, na Banrighinn...

*Western’s White and Purple have come down
to Queen’s to score,
We sent them back to London as they’d ne’er
been sent before.
And Queen’s again were victors as they were
in days of yore,
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

*There may be other colours to the breezes
oft unfurled,
And many another college yell by student
voices hurled;
Queen’s College Colours are the dearest
in the world,
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus

*Oil thigh na Banrighinn a’Banrighinn gu brath!
Oil thigh na Banrighinn a’Banrighinn gu brath!
Oil thigh na Banrighinn a’Banrighinn gu brath!
Cha-gheill! Cha-gheill! Cha-gheill!*

Congratulations Queen's Graduates
