Please join in the singing of O Canada

*O CANADA! our home and native land!
True patriot-love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free,
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.*

*God keep our land, glorious and free,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

*O CANADA! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.*

*Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

Recession

Audience should remain standing while the platform party and graduates recess.

Mary Jane Mossman

A proud Nova Scotian, Professor Mossman graduated in law at Queen's University in 1970. She was part of Kingston's first student community law centre, and then the first articling student at Parkdale Community Legal Services (Toronto 1971). As Legal Aid Ontario's Clinic Funding Manager, she significantly expanded access to justice with community clinics across Ontario; and has provided recent support to the Friends of Community Clinics, Tribunal Watch Ontario and the Unifor Legal Services Plan.

Professor Mossman's academic career began at the University of New South Wales (1972), and she became one of the first two women appointed to faculty at Osgoode Hall Law School (1977). She taught Property and Family Law courses until her retirement (2017), regularly publishing student casebooks for these courses. In the 1980s, Professor Mossman introduced Osgoode's first courses in Law, Gender, Equality and Feminist Legal Theory. She served as Osgoode's Associate Dean and later as Director of its Institute for Feminist Legal Studies, and she was a Visiting Professor in Canada and the USA, Europe, Japan, New Zealand and Australia. Her recent scholarship focused on women lawyers' histories, including The First Women Lawyers: A Comparative Study of Gender, Law and the Legal Professions (2006); and Quiet Rebels: A History of Ontario Women Lawyers (2024).

Professor Mossman greatly enjoyed visits to Queen's, especially her Visiting Professorship in the Faculty of Law (1989-90), teaching Property and Family Law. She has received teaching awards from Osgoode and the Ontario Government, and other awards, including the Women's Law Association of Ontario President's Award, the Gordon Henderson Chair in Human Rights in Ottawa, the Ontario Law Society Medal – and especially this honorary Queen's law degree.

INDIGENOUS GIFTING CEREMONY

Every year, Four Directions Indigenous Student Centre (FDISC), on behalf of the University, the Indigenous Council of Queen's University (ICQU) and the Vice-Provost and Dean of Student Affairs, presents graduating Indigenous students with special gifts during their convocation ceremonies in honour of their accomplishments as Indigenous graduates of Queen's University.

Indigenous graduates are invited back to FDISC to put their handprint on a canvas wall hanging, along with their name, program, year of graduation and community, leaving their mark on Queen's in perpetuity.

"In my community we have oheroton, a rite of passage ceremony. I was never able to participate. Receiving this gift was like my own rite of passage, reaffirming that we will succeed as indigenous people within these institutions."

– J. Sunday, Akwesasne (BSc Kinesiology 2019)

THE ACADEMIC HOOD

The hood as an academical vestment is distinctly British and is worn by graduates of English-speaking universities all over the world. In its original form it was the upper part of the cowl worn by the Monks and Friars of the Middle Ages. The hood covered the head during inclement weather and in the draughty cloisters when taking exercise. If not needed for this purpose it could be pulled off and allowed to hang behind over the tippet. The tippet was the lower part, a short cape, reaching to the elbow and forming a very welcome article of clothing in the monasteries and hostels which were still unglazed at the end of the 15th century. Indeed, it would appear that glass was not in general use until 1650, for three years later an order was issued to all students at Oxford to “keep his chamber windows in repair after they have once been glazed by the college”. The cowl still forms part of the dress of the religious orders, but the hood, separated from the tippet now denotes a graduate of some British or American University or similar institution while the tippet is worn by certain dignitaries of both the Roman and the Anglican church. A smaller type is also used to distinguish Diocesan Readers.

THE COAT OF ARMS

The Coat of Arms of the University that hangs behind the Chancellor's dais is based on that of Edinburgh University, the institution after which Queen's was modeled. The Coat of Arms consists of a gold shield with red edges, divided into four triangular compartments by a blue, diagonal St. Andrew's cross, which represents the university's Scottish origins. A golden book, symbolizing learning, sits open at the centre of the cross. In each of the four compartments is an emblem of the university's Canadian and British origins: a pine tree for Canada, a thistle for Scotland, a rose for England, and a shamrock for Ireland. The red colour of the border is a mark of cadency, indicating that Queen's is younger than Edinburgh University. The border is decorated with eight gold crowns, symbolic of Queen Victoria and the university's royal charter. The official heraldic description of the coat of arms is: "Or on a Saltire Azure between in chief a Fir tree eradicated in base a Thistle stalked and leaved in fesse a Red Rose barbed seeded stalked and leaved all proper and a Trefoil Vert an open Book of the first a Bordure also Gules charged with eight Ancient Crowns Gold". The shield is underlined by the Latin phrase "Sapientia et Doctrina Stabilitas" which is translated as "Wisdom and Learning shall be the stability of thy times".

Although the Coat of Arms has been in use since the 20th century, it was not until 1953 that it was sanctioned by the College of Arms of England and subsequently registered through Letters Patent, dated 27 November 1981, and recorded in the Public Register of All Arms and Bearings in Scotland, that is the Court of the Lord Lyon, Edinburgh, Scotland. On 30 September 1991, during Queen's Sesqui-centennial Celebrations, the Coat of Arms was registered in the Canadian Registry of Flags, Arms and Badges.

'OIL THIGH'

Written in 1898, this song is a distinctive Queen's tradition, performed at sporting events and most University occasions. It consists of the old song "Queen's College Colours," often sung to the accompaniment of a low-kicking can-can dance. In most instances, the song is sung beginning with the chorus, followed by the first verse of the lyrics, and ending with the chorus one last time.

The name "Oil Thigh" comes from the chorus of the song, which begins with the Gaelic words "Oil thigh na Banrighinn a'Banrighinn gu brath" ("The college of the wife of the King forever"). At football games, it is a tradition that students perform an 'Oil Thigh' after every touchdown.

The lyrics are sung to the traditional tune used for the American 'Battle Hymn of the Republic'.

Lyrics

*Queen's College Colours we are wearing once again,
Soiled as they are by the battle and the rain,
Yet another victory to wipe away the stain!
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus: Oil thigh, na Banrighinn...

*Varsity's not invincible, they tremble at the news
Of Queen's College Colours and are shaking in their shoes.
Yet another victory, the chance we dare not lose.
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus: Oil thigh, na Banrighinn...

*McGill has met defeat before, they've heard
the same old tale
Of Queen's College Colours, boys,
the ones that seldom fail,*

*Remember Captain Curtis and the conquerors of Yale,
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus: Oil thigh, na Banrighinn...

*Western's White and Purple have come down
to Queen's to score,
We sent them back to London as they'd ne'er
been sent before.
And Queen's again were victors as they were
in days of yore,
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

*There may be other colours to the breezes
oft unfurled,
And many another college yell by student
voices hurled;
Queen's College Colours are the dearest
in the world,
So, Gaels, go in and win!*

Chorus

*Oil thigh na Banrighinn a'Banrighinn gu brath!
Oil thigh na Banrighinn a'Banrighinn gu brath!
Oil thigh na Banrighinn a'Banrighinn gu brath!
Cha-gheill! Cha-gheill! Cha-gheill!*

Congratulations Queen's Graduates
