

AVAILABLE POSITIONS:

Posting Date: November 15, 2021

Job Title: Post-Doctoral Fellow

Department: School of Religion, Queen's University

Description of Area or Topic of Research: Contemporary Asian Religions

We are seeking a scholar whose research interests concern Asian religious expressions and practices in the contemporary context. Some examples include: Asian religion(s) and environmental ethics; global Buddhism or Taoism; transmission of Asian religious and spiritual expressions (Yoga, mindfulness) into the global west; hybridity and fluidity of Asian religious expressions globally; intersections of Asian religious expressions with popular culture, art, food, materiality, embodiment, race, gender and/or sexuality.

Candidates must have a demonstrated ability to teach undergraduate courses in their area of specialty. Knowledge of a specific religious tradition, such as Buddhism or Taoism, would be considered an asset.

Supervision and Academic Unit: To Be Determined

Remuneration: Minimum annual base salary $35,958; the incumbent will be separately appointed and compensated as a Term Adjunct to teach a .5 credit (3 units) University course. The Term Adjunct Appointment shall be governed by the Queen's-QUFA collective agreement.
