

RELS 398: JUDAISM IN THE MODERN AGE

Queen's University School of Religion

Taught by: Professor Dustin Atlas

The development of modern Jewish thought, with focus on North American Jewish thought and culture.

Course Breakdown

We will read a series of key Jewish texts (from Feminism to Reconstructionism) and engage a number of cultural objects (both movies and music) to try and understand the development of Judaism in North America. Grading will consist of 40% reading and annotations; 20% participation and discussion; 40% writing.

Time Commitment per Week

8 hours

Prerequisite

Level 3

Required Textbook/Materials

Yes