

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY COUNCIL REPORT TO THE SENATE
May 22, 2012

Agenda: <http://www.queensu.ca/secretariat/council/agendasminutes/050512.html>

At its meeting on Saturday, May 5, University Council approved:

- A recommendation that the University restore Fall Homecoming in 2013 and report to the Queen's community within six months on its plan to do so.
- Revisions to the University Council Bylaws necessitated by a) the amendments to the Royal Charter and Board of Trustees membership and b) to reflect the current process and requirements of Queen's University in the 21st century
<http://www.queensu.ca/secretariat/council/proposedcharter.html>

Councillors also heard:

- A State of the University Address by Principal Woolf
<http://www.queensu.ca/principal/speech/UCMay2012.html>
- An Operational and Planning Update by Provost Harrison

The elected councillors participated in a facilitated discussion on issues of Council reform and discussed future models of the Council, some of which do not include senators and trustees in the membership.