Re: Proposal for provisional centre approval for a Centre for Law in Contemporary Workplace (CLCW)

On the recommendation of Dr. Steven Liss, Vice-Principal (Research) and the Senate Advisory Research Committee members, I am pleased to provide "provisional approval" for the establishment of the Centre for Law in Contemporary Workplace (CLCW). In accordance with the Senate Procedures Governing the Establishment, Reporting and Review of Research Centres, Institutes, and other entities at Queen's University, provisional approval is granted for a period of up to twenty-four months from the date of this letter.

Please complete and submit the necessary documentation for formal approval to Senate at least three months prior to the end of the provisional approval period.

The Centre for Law in Contemporary Workplace, as described, promises to facilitate important research on a very timely subject and I wish you every success with this exciting research initiative.

Sincerely yours,

Robert A. Silverman
Provost and Vice-Principal (Academic)

Dear Dr. Flanagan:

Re: Outcome of the September 27, 2010 Senate Advisory Research Committee Meeting –
Request for Provisional Centre Approval for a Centre for Law in Contemporary Workplace (CLCW)

Thank you for arranging for Kevin Banks and Lisa Joly to represent the Centre for Law in Contemporary Workplace at the Senate Advisory Research Committee (SARC) meeting of September 27, 2010. On behalf of the SARC members, I am pleased to inform you that it is recommended to the Provost and Vice-Principal (Academic) that the Centre for Law in Contemporary Workplace receives 'provisional' centre status.

If you have any questions regarding the preparation for the proposal requesting full centre status, please do not hesitate to contact me. Please accept the best wishes of the Committee members for future success in the endeavours of this collaborative Research Centre.

Sincerely yours,

Steven N. Liss, Ph.D.
Vice-Principal (Research)
