

PATHWAY TO COMPLETING YOUR PhD IN BIOMEDICAL AND MOLECULAR SCIENCES

YEAR ONE (Summer Term)

- Have first committee meeting and present research proposal
- Continue research

*Seeking strategies for success?
Check out the graduate academic,
professional and personal development
workshops (Expanding Horizons)*

YEAR FOUR

- Completion of research and thesis, preparation for and completion of oral thesis exam

*Thought about your career?
Check out Expanding Horizons to help you prepare, plan
and search*

YEAR ONE

(Fall/Winter Term)

- Identify if any course work is required
- Complete all required health & safety, animal, human research ethics training
- Development of research proposal
- Start research

YEAR TWO

- Complete comprehensive examination requirements
- Continue research

YEAR THREE

- Continue in-depth research

*Did you know?
Queen's provides writing workshops and dissertation boot camps*

NEXT STEPS

Career opportunities post-graduation range from scientist, academia, private sector or in the government sector