TEACHING POSITION AVAILABLE – 3/L
SOCY 273* - Social Psychology
Department of Sociology
Queen’s University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of Sociology at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in the Social Psychology (SOCY273*). This is an on-campus, lecture course with an expected enrolment of 120 students. Candidates should have a Ph.D and teaching experience at the University level in Sociology. This is a fall term appointment for the period 1 September 2019 to 31 December 2019.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Wendy Schuler, Department of Sociology, 613-533-2164 or schulerw@queensu.ca.

The academic staff at Queen’s University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen’s University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:

Annette Burfoot, PhD
