

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY

POSTING: Teaching Assistantships
CLOSING DATE: April 27, 2020

We are looking to hire two current Sociology graduate students for teaching assistance work over the spring and summer to be trained, and then to train and assist faculty with turning their courses to remote mode. We are looking for students who have experience with online learning platform design and management (OnQ is preferred). These teaching resource associates (TRA) will be working with the Faculty of Arts and Science during the month of May to receive specialized training in course set up, grade book, quiz/exam settings and troubleshooting. Then the TRAs will help faculty prepare their courses for remote offering in the Fall over the summer. The term of the contract is for May 1 – July 30 2020 calculated at 10 hours a week. If you are qualified and interested, please send an email to me, copied to Wendy Schuler by April 27th 2020.

Thank you,

Annette

Annette Burfoot, D Phil
Professor and Head
Department of Sociology