

2024 Donald Matthews Faculty Fellowship Symposium

The Donald Matthews Lecture Series is supported by the Matthews Faculty Fellowship in Global Public Policy. Established by Donald Matthews (B.Sc. 1950) in 2006, this endowment supports the appointment of world-class, leading-edge scholars and practitioners to teach, lead research and share their experience with students and faculty at Queen’s University. It continues and honours the life-time commitment of Donald Matthews, a Canadian business leader, to public service.

Friday March 22, 2024

Policy, People, Progress: The Future of Canada's Public Service

11:00 a.m.	Introductions Land Acknowledgment	Eden Monastirsky & Kokul Sathiyapalan MPA Student Executive Policy Talks Representatives
11:15 a.m.	Keynote	Al Sutherland, Assistant Secretary to the Cabinet, Privy Council Office (Machinery of Government)
12:00 p.m.	Lunch
12:30 p.m.	Panelists	Margaret Biggs, Matthews Fellows in Global Public Policy Dan Brant, Matthews Fellows in Global Public Policy David Lobo, President and CEO of Ontario Cannabis Store Al Sutherland, Assistant Secretary to the Cabinet, Privy Council Office (Machinery of Government) Lori Turnbull, Director of Dalhousie University School of Public Administration
1:30 p.m.	Break Out Session	Facilitated by: Margaret Biggs, Matthews Fellows in Global Public Policy Dan Brant, Matthews Fellows in Global Public Policy Caroline Davis, Distinguished Fellow Toby Fyfe, Adjunct Professor Jamshed Merchant, Adjunct Professor Al Sutherland, Assistant Secretary to the Cabinet, Privy Council Office (Machinery of Government)
2:30 p.m.	Break
2:45 p.m.	Wrap Up	Overview of table discussions
3:15 p.m.	Conclusion	Eden Monastirsky & Kokul Sathiyapalan MPA Student Executive Policy Talks Representatives